Brooke did not estimate the cost of his proposals but aides said it would run to thousands, rather than millions of dollars. They said he avoided introducing more costly measures because of congressional resistance to new spending programs.

Instead, Brooke hopes for several small victories to put Congress on record in favor of even the massive urban reconstruction, the aides said.

being lost," Johnson said.

"For us, this is not a propaganda exercise. We have sent serious and considered messages aimed at bringing about the earliest possible contact. "What is needed today is an equally serious reply, reacting to our proposals for neutral sites or offering additional suggestions of neutral capitals where both of us have representatives and communications."

Several hours after Johnson spoke the official North Vietnamese Communist newspaper Nhan Dan said the United States showed "lack of good will" in turning down two sites Hanoi has proposed, Warsaw and Phnom Penh, Cambodia.

A Nhan Dan article broadcast from Hanoi flung back in the President's face his offer in the past to send U.S. negotiators anywhere at any time for talks. "This statement is big-sounding and allows no misunderstanding," the article said. Yet, after making many such statements the Johnson administration now changes tune."

While here, Johnson said, he would discuss what he termed the twins paths to peace with the top military command and, on Wednesday, with President Chung Hee Park of South Korea, a somewhat restive ally

Mixed Drinks in Clubs to Be Allowed

LITTLE ROCK (AP) — The state Alcoholic Beverage Control Board approved regulations Monday which would permit licensed, private, nonprofit clubs in wet counties to serve mixed drinks to members.

Harrel Hughes, director of the ABC, and each member of the board denied that the board was taking it upon itself to legalize the sale of mixed drinks in Arkansas.

Hughes said an opinion handed down Feb. 28 by Atty. Gen. Joe Purcell had been used as the authority to draft the regulations.

The opinion said the department had been given "broad regulatory and rule-making powers." The opinion also said the department could issue six permits, one of which was a hotel, restaurant and club permit which was not defined by statute.

Purcell said in an opinion handed down in March that mixed drinks could not legally be dispensed in private clubs in Arkansas. The ABC raided the plush Top of the Rock in Little Rock following Purcell's opinion and confiscated 26 bottles of liquor.

Hughes said there were no plans to ask Purcell's opinion on the regulations approved by the ABC.

The regulations for the club permit were released at a late afternoon news conference along with a list of 18 private clubs which had already submitted applications for the permit.

Hughes said the regulations provide for the dispensing of a mixed drink and not the sale but the fifth of the nine provisions says the serving of drinks "having an alcoholic content in excess of 3.2 per cent by weight" calls for an "appropriate charge therefor."

Hughes said one of the "compelling" reasons for the action was the fact that the "board's recent action in enforcing existing laws and regulations against private clubs has caused a number of cases of severe hardship and unemployment."

He denied that Gov. Winthrop Rockefeller was aware of the board's action and also denied that pressure from prominent club members and the Arkansas Private Club Managers Association had forced the approval of the regulations.

"I believe it important to keep in mind that although this is a departure from past practice, the attorneys appear to be almost unanimous in their agreement that the board has this authority," Hughes said. "With this in mind, the board feels that it must, in the public interest, take this action."

The 18 clubs which applied for the permit were: Pine Bluff Country Club; Delta Country Club, Inc. of McGehee; North Hills Country Club of Sherwood; Fayetteville Country Club; The Town Club, Inc., of Fort Smith; Harderabble Country Club of Fort Smith; The El Dorado Golf and Country Club; The Country Club of Hot Springs; Newport Country Club.

The American Legion; Club Riviera, Inc.; Top of the Rock Club; The Dummer's Club, Inc.; The Gasline Club; Riverdale Country Club and Western Hills Country Club, all of Little Rock.

Park was flying in from Seoul tonight.

Johnson is expected to remain in Hawaii until Thursday. He is living about 10 miles outside the city at the seaside estate of the widow of the late millionaire industrialist Henry J. Kaiser.

Scientists Now Link Cancer Virus to the Rare Kissing Disease

By JOHN BARBOUR
AP Science Writer

ATLANTIC CITY, N.J. (AP) — There may be a positive link between infectious mononucleosis, widely known as the kissing disease, and a malignant tumor which is quite common in Africa but rare in the United States.

That was the report today by Dr. Julius S. Horoszewicz of Roswell Park Memorial Institute in Buffalo, N.Y.

If the link, a virus, is established definitely, it will be the first time that a virus has been indicted as a cause of cancer-type disease in humans.

The virus has already been shown by other researchers to be associated with infectious mononucleosis, usually not a severe disease that causes fever, chills, general bad feeling and sometimes headache and chest pain.

Researchers have shown that the virus reacts with protective antibodies from humans who have already had the kissing disease, the Roswell Park report said. The reaction is the same as an infecting virus would produce in a vaccinated person, indirect evidence that the virus causes infectious mononucleosis.

The New York researcher, associated with Dr. James T. Grace Jr., and Dr. Virginia C.

Dunkel, gave his report to the Federation of American Societies for Experimental Biology, meeting here.

They found that the same virus associated with infectious mononucleosis is the one often seen under the electron microscope in tissue samples of Burkitt lymphoma, the malignant tumor frequently seen in Africa.

The Roswell Park studies indicate that in the test tube the virus can affect certain cells in a variety of ways—ranging from a mild chronic infection to a lethal infection.

Governors on Fence Politically

By WALTER R. MEARS
Associated Press Writer

ST. LOUIS, Mo. (AP) — Democratic governors have decided not to tamper with "the events of history" in this explosive political year, agreeing instead to wait and see what happens before announcing preferences in the race for the White House.

They didn't even reach an accord that would have declared advance support for the man their party eventually nominates to run for president.

Even before their 2½ hour political talk Monday, the governors meeting in St. Louis acknowledged they could not possibly agree on a consensus candidate for the Democratic nomination that President Johnson said he would neither seek nor accept.

They matched their forecast. A handful of Democratic governors declared their choices in advance of the conference which drew 17 of the 24 Democratic state executives. There were no new public commitments at that meeting.

Its major product: A statement rejecting any mass attempt by governors to step into the developing race between Sens. Robert F. Kennedy of New York, Eugene J. McCarthy of Minnesota and Vice President Hubert H. Humphrey, the latter still undecided.

Instead, the governors agreed to wait and watch. Even that wasn't unanimous.

Gov. John Bell Williams of Mississippi abstained from the decision and Gov. Lester Maddox of Georgia wasn't present when it was made.

Gov. Richard J. Hughes of New Jersey raised the question of an advance endorsement of the 1968 Democratic ticket, but dropped it when Southern governors objected.

"It appeared that there was no opportunity for unanimity of opinion," Hughes explained. Without unanimity, he said, a governors' pledge to support a party nominee would have been pointless.

Development District Is Approved

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Commerce Department has approved the West Central Arkansas Economic Development District, which is composed of 10 counties, Rep. John Paul Hammerschmidt, R-Ark., announced today.

Hot Springs has been designated as the economic development center and Russellville as the redevelopment center.

Formation of the district will allow the area to receive greater federal assistance in conjunction with the Economic Development Administration.

The counties in the district are Clark, Conway, Garland, Hot Spring, Johnson, Montgomery, Perry, Pike, Pope and Yell.

Allen Files for House in Pulaski

LITTLE ROCK (AP) — Marshall D. Martin, 29, of Little Rock filed today as a Republican candidate for Pos. 12 in House District 22, which is Pulaski and Perry counties.

Martin, who is self-employed, is seeking the seat held by Rep. Allan Dishongh of Little Rock, who has filed for re-election.

Martin has held several jobs in the administration of Gov. Winthrop Rockefeller. He did most of the leg work on preparing for a central telephone system for state government, which was authorized by the February special legislative session.

Rep. Charles E. Davis, 40, of Springdale filed for re-election to Pos. 3 in District 7, which is Washington County. He is seeking a second term.

Wayne N. Courtney, a 32-year-old merchant and farmer of Forrest City, filed for Pos. 2 in District 27, which is St. Francis County. The position is held by Rep. R. E. Flanagan of Forrest City.

Haiphong Says U.S. Plane Shot Down

TOKYO (AP) — A U.S. plane was shot down today while "intruding" into the airspace of Haiphong, North Vietnam's major port, far north of the 20th Parallel, Hanoi's official Vietnam News Agency said.

In a broadcast monitored here the agency said four other U.S. aircraft were brought down Monday "over Nghe An, Ha Tinh and Quang Binh provinces when they came there to raid populated areas."

Wallace Is Coming to Arkansas

MONTGOMERY, Ala. (AP) — Former Gov. George Wallace takes his presidential campaign into Arkansas for a news conference Saturday afternoon and a rally that night, both in Little Rock.

Efforts have already begun to get the independent candidate's name on the Arkansas ballot in the Nov. 5 election.

The former governor will talk with reporters at a news conference at 2:45 p.m. in the Albert Pike Hotel and then speak at a rally in Barton Coliseum at 8 p.m.

Five Bodies Found in Calif. Fire

FRESNO, Calif. (AP) — The bodies of three children and two adults were found early today in a house partly destroyed by fire. Police found a five-gallon gasoline can in the living room.

Officers said a child found on the living room couch had been strangled. In the bedroom were two other children, one strangled, one stabbed and with a plastic bag over its head.

A woman had a head wound, officers said, and a man on the back porch apparently burned to death.

Identities were not immediately known.

Firemen said the house was locked from the inside when they arrived.

A woman had noticed fire in the house and turned in an alarm.

Necessary Step by ABC, Says Governor

LITTLE ROCK (AP) — Gov. Winthrop Rockefeller said today that he thought the state Alcoholic Beverage Control Board took a necessary first step Monday toward resolving the "hypocrisy" surrounding Arkansas' liquor laws.

The board issued a set of rules and regulations governing the issuance of permits under which private, nonprofit clubs could dispense mixed drinks. "I think you've got to start somewhere," Rockefeller said at a news conference.

The governor said he was unaware that the ABC regulations were being made until he received a copy of them shortly before a late-afternoon news conference held by the board Monday.

Asked if public reaction to the board's decision could cause him to place a mixed drink bill in next month's special legislative session, Rockefeller said, "It would take some extraordinary situation that I'm not aware of now."

Quit Paying Bills for Prisoners

TUCUMCARI, N.M. (AP) — The Tucumcari City Commission says it has paid its final dental bill for city jail prisoners.

The commission took the action after funds were approved for a $30.16 dental bill dated September 1966.

Turned Out to Be a Canary

COLUMBIA, S.C. (AP) — A discount store was surrounded by Richland County deputy sheriffs with drawn guns when the burglar alarm went off. The deputies discovered that a canary had escaped from his cage and flown through a light beam which electronically guards the premises and set off an alarm.

Body of Man Found in Wheat Field

OSCEOLA, Ark. (AP) — The body of a Negro man was found Monday afternoon in a wheat field about five miles south of here, the Mississippi County Sheriff's Office said today.

Officers said there was no identification on the body. The investigation is continuing.

Kennedy Enters in South Dakota

SIOUX FALLS, S.D. (AP) — Sen. Robert F. Kennedy announced today he is a candidate in the June 4 presidential primary in Vice President Hubert H. Humphrey's native South Dakota.

Local Democrats apparently entered his name in the primary without fanfare last week, and a Kennedy spokesman said his announcement at the airport in Sioux Falls today was his formal announcement of candidacy in the state.

Sen. George McGovern, D-S.D., while holding back from a formal endorsement of Kennedy, told a Chamber of Commerce meeting, where the New Yorker was to speak, that Robert Kennedy could be a greater president than his brother, John F. Kennedy.

Kennedy is not expected to campaign heavily for South Dakota's 26 delegates to the Democratic national convention. The primary falls on the same date as the crucial California contest, which has 174 delegates at stake.

More than 1,000 persons greeted Kennedy in Sioux Falls as he flew in from North Dakota. Kennedy, for the first time in his month-long campaign, has found himself running into McCarthy people en masse.

Kinda Rough on His Date

BOSTON (AP) — Arthur Frederico, 17, of Boston, has been fined $100 in municipal court for throwing his 14-year-old date into Boston Harbor.

The girl testified that Frederico choked her and threw her in the water after becoming angry with her as they walked along the waterfront April 7.

"These boys today are just too damn fresh," said Judge Elijah Adlo as he passed sentence.

"I Saw Wrinkles Vanish or Diminish in 2 Weeks"

NEW YORK (Special) — "Disappearance of small wrinkles was accomplished... even the very deepest wrinkles showed very great improvement." This dramatic report on the ingredients in Genava was made by a noted physician, specializing in dermatology, after tests made on a selected group of women. He saw these results with his own eyes.

With this substance new to cosmetics, named Genava, aging skin can start looking younger and younger—not older and older.

The physician also commented, "The small superficial wrinkles responded dramatically." And he adds that the skin was "more translucent and smoother in appearance."

These results are nothing short of amazing. And it took a new cosmetic compound to do it.

Developed by the trustworthy Nina laboratory, Genava is designed to be used under make-up and as a night cream. It is absorbed instantly. In two weeks time wrinkles will vanish or diminish greatly. That is the promise now made possible by Genava. Skin will become more translucent, younger-looking. Now available in selected stores—1.65 oz. $3.50; 4 oz. $5.00.

LINEN SHOWER FOR BRIDE-ELECT

A linen shower for Miss Donna Kay Cochran of Texarkana, bride-elect of Mack McLarty, was given at the Heritage House on Saturday morning, April 12 with Mrs. Bess Evans, Mrs. Andy Caldwell, Mrs. Helen Hatch Boyd, and Mrs. W. L. Tate as hostesses.

A simulated Easter rabbit and pink egg shells formed the seasonal corsage which the honoree pinned to her navy and white casual dress. Yellow Easter corsages were presented to Mrs. Virgil Cochran of Hot Springs and Mrs. Franklin McLarty, mothers of the engaged couple, and a blue corsage of the same type went to Mrs. Tom McLarty, grandmother of the groom-elect.

Blue irises, yellow mums, and white daisies decorated the table where snacks were served with spiced tea and coffee. Mrs. Kinard Young poured. Assisting in the dining room were Mrs. E. J. Whitman and Mrs. Jack Caldwell.

About 30 guests called during the appointed hours, including Misses Ruth and Maurine Cochran, aunts of the honoree, and Mrs. Ray Allen, all of Texarkana, and Miss Charlene Cochran and Mrs. Spencer Armour, both of Dallas.

Miss Cochran received many lovely gifts, and an antique Queen Anne bedspread was presented to her by the hostesses.

Coming, Going

David Max Hendrix, Memphis, was with Mrs. Marie Hendrix and other relatives over the weekend.

Mr. and Mrs. Gary Metcalf and family, Aurora, Ill., have been visiting friends and relatives in Hope.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Robins, III and Laura, Conway, were Sunday guests of Mr. and Mrs. Earl O'Neal and other relatives.

Rommel Nunn, U of A, spent the holidays with his grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. C. V. Nunn.

Dr. and Mrs. Rex Easter and daughter, Shreveport, were the Sunday guests of his mother, Mrs. J. A. Davis, and Mr. Davis.

Mrs. B. C. Hyatt had as an Easter guest her brother, Stuart Spragins of Little Rock.

Mrs. Graydon Anthony returned home last Thursday from visits in Little Rock and Crossett.

Judge and Mrs. Lyle Brown and Phala, Little Rock, were here for the Easter holidays with Mr. and Mrs. Jim Lockhart and family.

Dr. and Mrs. Lloyd Guerin and family, Conway, and Dr. and Mrs. John Nix and daughter, Texarkana, spent the recent holidays with Dr. and Mrs. Emmett Thompson.

Mrs. Tommy Brasher and Melody, Hot Springs, have been the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Horace Fuller.

THE LONG AND THE SHORT OF IT belongs in your wig boutique because one hair style is not enough for today's fashionable beauty. There's nothing like using two or more hairpieces for a quick switch in coiffure and now a girl can change her hairdo with her mood. The layered look can start the day with the razor boy cut (a wig) . . . (right) and end it in an aura of pure romance by adding a fall and perky ribbon. Hairpieces need grooming to keep their fresh, natural look and one company has a trio of aids to do it at home. There's a spray-on cleaner that only needs brushing to restore loveliness. The sheen, when sprayed on adds lustre that makes it gleam and the clear, nonflake spray puts the finishing touch to your hairdo.

Mr. and Mrs. Bill Rudder, Little Rock, visited the Calvin Smiths over the weekend.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Shiver have returned home from Charleston, S.C., where they met Mr. and Mrs. Ronnie Nations and family of Kingsport, Tenn., for a vacation tour of the area. of St. Augustine, Fla., and enjoyed points of interest there.

Recent guests of Miss Aurie Huntley and Mrs. Mary Jaeger have been Mr. and Mrs. Don Brown and family, Liberty, Mo., and the Rev. and Mrs. T. H. King, Carmi, Ill.

The Bill Wirsky family, Richardson, Tex., were Easter guests of Mr. and Mrs. Harry Hawthorne.

Television and Radio

By CYNTHIA LOWRY
AP Television-Radio Writer
NEW YORK (AP) — The reproduction process of the lumbering green sea turtle, which often travels 1,000 miles to the off-Africa island of Europa to lay its eggs, is awesome and interesting. And interesting too, are the little one-man submarines built to order for Jacques Cousteau and his band of seafaring explorers.

ABC put them both together in a special program Monday night. The result was the weakest of the Cousteau undersea series to date, but it was still a fascinating and at times a drama-filled hour.

The spawning habits of this huge creature weighing upward of 400 pounds and which lays as many as 500 eggs in a season, are not exactly mysteries. But Cousteau and his underwater photographers were able to follow them around the sea floor as well as up on the beaches as the females struggled over the sand to drop their eggs.

Most interesting portion of the hour was the hatching of the young turtles and their furious struggle to make their way back to the protective sea. The drama was supplied by the hovering and sinister frigate birds who picked off the unprotected young turtles at such a rate that often there is not a single survivor in an original clutch of 100 eggs.

The submarines were interesting additions to the Cousteau underwater equipment, but there was a rather phony drama built up in the series involving what was alleged to be their initial tryouts. The program, third in the series, lacked the magnificent and unusual undersea photography of the others, but even with its shortcomings, it was a superior program.

Later in the evening, "I Spy" on NBC wound up its three-year life as a pleasant gay series, starring two jaunty if highly unlikely secret agents in Robert Culp and Bill Cosby. The wind-up show was a rather silly tale spun out against the sunny background of Acapulco.

As Scott and Kelly, leaning casually against some colorful drying fishnets, faded into the television sunset, there was never a farewell, never a hint that they had just concluded their final caper, engaged in their last bit of giddy dialogue. Oh sure, they'll be around for months in the hot weather reruns, but the episode was the last show made.

Sees Future in Russian, U.S. Films

By MICHAEL JOHNSON
Associated Press Writer
MOSCOW (AP) — Russian-born Dmitri Tiomkin, a leading composer of Hollywood movie scores, foresees a big future for Soviet-American film productions "if we don't ruin it."

Many U.S. film distributors are "too nearsighted" to see that Soviet movie makers are "taking giant steps," he said in an interview.

Looking spry and prosperous, Tiomkin took an afternoon off from his work on a film biography of Russian composer Peter Ilich Tchaikovsky, the first joint Soviet-American production for the screen.

"These young directors here have the same desire to make good pictures that we have," Tiomkin said. "They're trying to attract people—and make money."

"They have to sell tickets in Russia, you know. They don't drive people to the theaters with guns."

Tiomkin said American movie producers have passed up a bonanza by failing to take Soviet cinema seriously.

"You can't ignore these 200 million wonderful motion picture goers," he said.

The composer, whose score for "High Noon" made him famous, spoke in a thick Russian accent, and seemed pleased to be back in Moscow—temporarily.

"Destiny made me come back to the place where I was born," he said.

Tiomkin's visit to Moscow four years ago was his first since he left the country in 1925. He says he left mostly for health reasons.

The Tchaikovsky biography is being produced jointly by Mosfilm and Warner Brothers-Seven Arts. Tiomkin is co-producer on the American side.

Requirements Were Stiff

MADISON, Wis. (AP) — Gov. Warren P. Knowles suggested Monday the state ease some job requirements to provide more employment opportunities for jobless persons. He cited a rule under which a person must have either a college degree or five years' experience to take a civil service examination for parking lot attendant.

Astros in Win in 17th at 2 a.m.

By RON RAPPOPORT
Associated Press Sports Writer
Rusty Staub said things started getting pretty funny around the 17th inning. Roy Hofmeier of the Astros' manager said the humor of the situation five innings later.
Two innings before the longest night game in major league history ended in the Astrodom on Monday night with Houston a 1-0 victor over the New York Mets — who else? — the following legend appeared on Astros' owner Hofmeier's psychedelic scoreboard:
"The Judge says he's ready to go to bed... let's score a run."
"After about the 17th inning, everything sort of got funny," said Staub, who batted nine times in the six-hour, six-minute contest. The game outlasted a two-inning longest night game played previously, a 6-5 American League victory for Washington over Chicago last year.
"That was a three-packer, a quof-tobacco game, and I've just about gone to bed," said catcher-coach Buddy Hencken of the Astros.
The game mercifully came to an end in typical Metsian fashion, with an error letting in the run after eight pitchers had battled valiantly to preserve the scoreless deadlock.
In the only other National League games played, Los Angeles rallied heroically to beat Pittsburgh 3-2 and St. Louis topped Atlanta 4-3 in 10 innings.
In the American League, Washington buried California 7-0, Oakland beat New York 6-3 and Minnesota downed Baltimore 6-3.
Shortstop Al Wels let a grounder off the bat of Bob Aspromonte go through his legs and that sent in Norm Miller, who led off with a single and advanced on a balk by Les Rohr and an infield out.
"No, it didn't take a bad hop," said Wels afterwards. "I just blew it. It went right through my legs."
Tom Seaver was the first of the Met hurlers, giving up just two hits in 10 innings and retiring 22 batters in a row after the third inning.
Don Wilson did almost as well in the first nine innings for Houston, but was long gone by the time Wade Blasingame, the fifth Houston pitcher, was officially declared the winner.
The Dodgers won in a finish that would have made a writer of juvenile sports fiction blush. Bob Beale was breezing along on a one-hitter into the ninth, but Jim Lefebvre's two-out, two-run homer beat him.
The first Los Angeles run of the inning, scoring on an infield out, was only the second scored in 44 innings this season. Until then, the Dodgers seemed likely to absorb their fourth shutout defeat in the five-game-old season.
Bill Singer, who gave up only six hits himself, and retired 19 batters in a row at one stretch, was the winner. Veale didn't allow a hit until the fifth when Rocky Colavito singled.
And in yet another last-inning finish, Johnny Edwards came up with a pinch single that drove in the winning run for the Cards. Pat Jarvis and Bog Gibson had duelled 1-1 into the seventh when Hank Aaron's homer gave Atlanta a one-run bulge.
But Roger Maris drove in two runs in the eighth for the Cards with a double and not till Dal Maxvill singled in the 10th and rode home on Edwards' single was the game decided.

Hassle Over Rules Change Has Started

By CHARLIE BAROUH
Associated Press Sports Writer
ST. LOUIS (AP) — Gov. Lester Maddox of Georgia got off the plane Monday one step ahead of Bob Goalby. But Maddox is only 2 governor, and Goalby is Masters champion, so the crowd wasn't interested in the governor.

Goalby was returning to his Belleville, Ill., home, just across the Mississippi River from St. Louis. He had just won the Masters Golf Tournament Sunday when Roberto De Vicenzo signed an incorrect scorecard and blew his tie with Goalby.

Maddox was coming to St. Louis to attend a conference of Democratic governors.

Goalby pocketed a $20,000 check for the victory and could look forward to all the fringe benefits that go with the Masters championship. Some people estimate a golf pro can pick up $1 million for a victory in the Masters.

"I don't think it's really worth that much money," the 38-year-old golfer said. "It might be to a guy like Arnold Palmer, but I doubt it's worth that much to other guys. In any case, I don't know what I'm going to do. I'll just have to wait and see what happens."

"I was elated with the outcome of the Masters, of course, though I'm sorry about what happened to Roberto," Goalby added. "But that's really secondary. I have to look at it from my point of view."

"Players score the wrong score cards every week. It usually doesn't happen to one of the players at the top and never in a tournament as big as the Masters."

"I was paired with Roberto Saturday and he went through his card a lot quicker than I did," the Illinois University graduate recalled. "I'm very careful with my card. He barely looked at his."

"But I don't think the rules should be changed," Goalby contended. "I don't mean that I necessarily agree with all of them, but they make the rules and I play by them."

Celtics Win to Cling to Slim Chance

By RALPH BERNSTEIN
Associated Press Sports Writer
PHILADELPHIA (AP) — Sam Jones isn't ready for a rocking chair just yet.

The 34-year-old sharpshooting guard of the Boston Celtics may need a breather now and then, but he's as tough as ever in the clutch. If you don't believe it, ask the Philadelphia 76ers.

Philadelphia was all set Monday night to finish off the Celtics in their best of 7 game Eastern final in the National Basketball Association. The 76ers led 3-1 and were at home before a sellout crowd of 15,202. Everything pointed to a Boston fade out.

Something went wrong with the script. Boston won 122-104. Old and tired Sam Jones fired in 37 points.

"When you're down 3-1," said Old Sam after he finished shooting up the 76ers, "You just pull up your socks and get the job done."

Jones connected on 15 of 27 from the field and threw a natural at the foul line—7 for 11. He broke the back of the team he describes as the strongest physically he's ever seen.

So, the series headed back to Boston for the sixth game Wednesday night. A seventh, if necessary, is slated for Philadelphia Friday night.

Jones didn't put down the defending champions all by himself. John Havlicek poured in 29 points and handed out 10 assists.

Strikeout No. 2,000 Gets Ball

WASHINGTON (AP) — Camilo Pascual has a ball commemorating his 2,000th strikeout and the Senator's pitcher will also treasure it as a reminder of his 33rd shutout, which keeps him on top of the American League pitchers. He is six ahead of Dean Chance of Minnesota.

Pascual fanned nine as the Senators beat the California Angels 7-0 Monday and Chuck Hinton, his second victim, gave Pascual his 2,000th strikeout.

Don Drysdale of the Los Angeles Dodgers and Jim Bunning of the Pittsburgh Pirates, both in the National League, are the only other active major league pitchers with over 2,000 strikeouts. Pascual was the 19th man in major league history to accomplish the feat.

The 34-year-old right-hander had his eye on the 2,000 figure with a month to go last season but broke his ankle September 12 and did not pitch again until opening day this year.

Olympic Head Pays Visit to South Africa

JOHANNESBURG, South Africa (AP) — The reason behind the surprise visit to South Africa of Avery Brundage, International Olympic Committee president, was still a secret today.

However, Frank Braun, president of the South African Olympic Games Association, has made it clear that he believes South Africa should not withdraw from the Games in Mexico City next October.

Braun said that any decision on the issue would have to come from the association's executive committee as a body. The executive committee was scheduled to meet Tuesday night.

Brundage planned to fly to Lausanne, Switzerland where an IOC executive meeting will be held Saturday.

The meeting was requested by the organizing committee of the Mexico City Games, scheduled for Oct. 12-27. The executive board can either call for a general meeting of the IOC or call for another mail vote.

Cokes, Ludick Weigh in at 145 Lbs.

DALLAS, Tex. (AP) — Lightweight champion Curtis Cokes and challenger Willie Ludick of South Africa expect to weigh in at around 146 pounds each for their 15-round title fight tonight.

The fight starts at 9:08 p.m. (CST) at which time television over 28 stations in the nation will start.

There will be no radio coverage.

PITCHING—Don Wilson, John Buzhardt, Danny Coombs, Jim Ray and Wade Blasingame, Astros, combined to blank New York for 24 innings as Houston nipped the Mets 1-0 in the longest night game in major league history.

BATTING — Jim Lefebvre, Dodgers, smacked a two-run ninth inning homer off Pittsburgh's Bob Veale to give Los Angeles a 3-2 victory over the Pirates.

Ken McMullen and Sam Bowers homered for the Senators who wrapped up the victory with a five-run burst in the fifth.

Ramon Webster drilled a triple and homer, driving in three runs, and rookie Reggie Jackson delivered two more with a double and homer as the A's pounded Yankee ace Mel Stottlemyre.

John "Blue Moon" Odom checked New York on five hits until the ninth, when Tom Tresh clipped him for a two-run homer.

HELENA, Ark. (AP) — The Arkansas Game and Fish Commission voted Monday to defer until its May meeting any discussion of its regulation prohibiting the free running of dogs "in known game cover" from April through July 31.

The decision was made because the commission hasn't received an official copy of the attorney general's opinion that says certain portions of the dog regulation are unconstitutional.

The commission also raised salaries of wildlife enforcement officers to $416 a month, hiked the pay of trappers and game refuge keepers to $395 a month and adopted a new policy designed to utilize the commission's manpower.

The raise for the enforcement officers was $23 a month and the other two were jumped $30 a month.

The election of 18 senators in one year and 17 two years later is required under the state Constitution.

The primary ticket closes May 1 and a quick decision is expected in the case.

NEW YORK (AP) — The tide seems to be turning toward televising nationally college football games on Saturday nights.

The meeting of Alabama's Crimson Tide and the Miami, Fla. Hurricanes on Nov. 16 will be one of two nationally televised on Saturday nights next season, it was announced Monday by ABC-TV in releasing its schedule.

The other will be the Southern California-UCLA game on Nov. 23, although this one will be seen at night for only part of the country because it is scheduled to start at 6 p.m., EST.

In all, a total of 35 games will be telecast by ABC, 11 nationally and 24 regionally. The first game on the screens will be between Georgia and Tennessee on Sept. 14, and it'll go nationally.

Allison Is Right, Twins Unbeaten

By DICK COUCH
Associated Press Sports Writer
Spring has been a little late this year in Minnesota, but a heat wave is on the way.

Big Bob Allison and the torrid Twins are coming home.

While temperatures hovered around the freezing mark in Minneapolis-St. Paul Monday night, Allison continued his early-season hitting binge with two doubles and a triple at Baltimore as the unbeaten Twins whipped the Orioles 6-3 for their fifth straight road victory.

Allison led American League hitters with a .550 average and the Twins topped the AL standings as they headed back to Minnesota for Wednesday's home opener against Washington.

The Senators blanked California 7-0 behind Camilo Pascual's six-hit, nine-strikeout pitching and the Oakland A's downed the New York Yankees 6-3 in American League day games. Detroit and Boston were rained out and Cleveland and Chicago were not scheduled.

In the National League, St. Louis edged Atlanta 4-3 in 10 innings, Los Angeles shaded Pittsburgh 3-2 and Houston outlasted the New York Mets 1-0 in a 24-inning marathon.

Allison doubled in the second inning, tripled in the fourth and doubled again in the sixth—giving him eight hits in nine at-bats—before going out in his last two trips to the plate. The former Kansas fullback, who drove in one run and scored two, has gone 11-for-20 over-all, with four doubles, one triple and one homer.

Right-hander Dave Boswell overcame a shaky start and held the Orioles to four hits. Tony Oliva's seventh inning single broke a 3-3 tie and Harmon Killebrew singled home two insurance runs in the ninth.

At Washington, Pascual became the only active American League pitcher to reach the 2,000 strikeout mark when he fanned the Angels' Chuck Hinton in the fourth inning.

The 34-year-old right-hander, who missed the last three weeks of the 1967 season after breaking his left ankle in a game to California, finished the day with a total of 2,007 strikeouts and the 33rd shutout of his career.

Ken McMullen and Sam Bowers homered for the Senators who wrapped up the victory with a five-run burst in the fifth.

Ramon Webster drilled a triple and homer, driving in three runs, and rookie Reggie Jackson delivered two more with a double and homer as the A's pounded Yankee ace Mel Stottlemyre.

John "Blue Moon" Odom checked New York on five hits until the ninth, when Tom Tresh clipped him for a two-run homer.

Boxers Plan for Benefits Unfolded

CHICAGO (AP) — Plans to form a professional boxing league with fighters getting group insurance, pensions and other benefits were unfolded Monday.

Franchises in eight cities including Chicago, Los Angeles, San Francisco, Boston, Louisville, Pittsburgh, Baltimore and Washington, D.C., were announced by sports commentator Jack Drees.

Groups are working in New York, Philadelphia, Atlanta and Miami to become members, revealed Drees, one of the owners of the Chicago franchise.

The organization will be known as the International Boxing League, Inc., and hopes to begin operations this fall.

Boxers will be placed under an annual contract ranging from $8,000 to $15,000," Drees said. "There will be no managers. The contract will be owned by the team for which he competes. Group insurance, pensions plans and other benefits are included."

Each team will carry a squad of 15 fighters, three for each weight division. Teams will compete for divisional championships with champions meeting for the league title. All bouts will be six rounds.

Suit Charges G&F Exceeded Authority

LITTLE ROCK (AP) — The Arkansas State Fox Hunters Association filed a suit against the state Game and Fish Commission Monday, charging that the commission had exceeded its authority by prohibiting the running of dogs in "known game cover" from April 1 through July 31.

The suit asked that the commission be enjoined from enforcing the order. It also asked Chancellor Murray O. Reed to rule specifically that the commission had erred by establishing zones to apply the order where it would affect fox hunters.

The association contends that the order is unconstitutional. The group also says the order is not applicable to hunters whose dogs are engaged in sport which does not result in the taking of game.

Salaries Hiked by G&F But Meet Delayed

HELENA, Ark. (AP) — The Arkansas Game and Fish Commission voted Monday to defer until its May meeting any discussion of its regulation prohibiting the free running of dogs "in known game cover" from April through July 31.

G&F Board Case Before High Court

LITTLE ROCK (AP) — Edward L. Wright, attorney for Gov. Winthrop Rockefeller, told the Arkansas Supreme Court Monday that Section 5 of the Game and Fish Commission amendment did not require enabling legislation.

Wright made the statement in Rockefeller's appeal of a Pulaski Chancery Court ruling prohibiting him from holding ouster hearings for some members of the commission.

Chancellor John Jernigan of Little Rock has ruled that the section needed enabling legislation.

Rockefeller has said he has evidence of misconduct in office by some commissioners. However, he hasn't named the commissioners or said what his evidence is.

The high court also took under advisement a suit to determine how many state senators have to run for re-election this year.

Jernigan has ruled that only nine senators must run. Twenty-six of the 35 senators were elected in 1966 because of a revision of the senatorial districts according to the U.S. Supreme Court's one-man, one-vote ruling.

The election of 18 senators in one year and 17 two years later is required under the state Constitution.

The primary ticket closes May 1 and a quick decision is expected in the case.

NEW YORK (AP) — The tide seems to be turning toward televising nationally college football games on Saturday nights.

The meeting of Alabama's Crimson Tide and the Miami, Fla. Hurricanes on Nov. 16 will be one of two nationally televised on Saturday nights next season, it was announced Monday by ABC-TV in releasing its schedule.

The other will be the Southern California-UCLA game on Nov. 23, although this one will be seen at night for only part of the country because it is scheduled to start at 6 p.m., EST.

In all, a total of 35 games will be telecast by ABC, 11 nationally and 24 regionally. The first game on the screens will be between Georgia and Tennessee on Sept. 14, and it'll go nationally.

LONDON (AP) — Igor Samochkin of Russia won the men's epee title and another Russian, Viktor Krovopuskov, took the sabre title at the World Youth Fencing Championships Monday night.

Boxers will be placed under an annual contract ranging from $8,000 to $15,000," Drees said. "There will be no managers. The contract will be owned by the team for which he competes. Group insurance, pensions plans and other benefits are included."

Each team will carry a squad of 15 fighters, three for each weight division. Teams will compete for divisional championships with champions meeting for the league title. All bouts will be six rounds.

Old No. 5 Returns to Yank Stadium

By JACK HANDB
Associated Press Sports Writer
NEW YORK (AP) — Joe DiMaggio's old No. 5 has been retired for all time at Yankee Stadium. A chunk of the Yankee Clipper's pinstriped uniform hangs in a place of honor with Babe Ruth's No. 3 and Lou Gehrig's No. 4.

But DiMaggio was back in action at the big Stadium Monday afternoon, wearing the Kelly green and Fort Knox gold uniform of the Oakland Athletics. He had the white kangaroo shoes, too, and the familiar No. 5 was on his back.

It wasn't exactly a fit day for a homecoming for an old hero. A Monday afternoon, clouds hanging low and only a few fans (8,579) in the stands.

Despite Computers IRS Depends on Tipsters to Catch Tax Cheaters

By JOSEPH R. COYNE
Associated Press Writer
WASHINGTON (AP) — Despite its complex tax computers, the Internal Revenue Service still relies on tipsters to catch some of America's tax cheats.

But the number of rewards for supplying usable information is on the wane.

Now that Monday's income tax deadline is past, IRS can expect a flood of mail claiming that one person or another cheated on his tax return.

Officials said they receive about 100,000 tips each year from persons looking for rewards, seeking vengeance, disgruntled with their employer—or simply patriotic.

The number who actually collect a reward is relatively small—624 for the last complete fiscal year—and is expected to get smaller. Two years before, 792 persons got rewards.

Officials said the computer system now in complete operation can uncover errors and omissions on tax returns before the informer can act.

IRS doesn't broadcast the fact it sometimes uses information supplied by tipsters to catch tax cheats but officials said it's a small part of the law enforcement program.

Total tax collections last year came to $148 billion, one source said, and only $11 million stemmed from information supplied by informants.

During the fiscal year which ended last June 30, the service received 4,019 claims for rewards from tipsters, rejected 3,395 of them and allowed the 624.

The reward can go as high as 10 per cent of the amount collected by IRS but it usually averages between 4 and 6 per cent. And rewards are passed out only after IRS determines the information helped materially to recover additional taxes.

No Winner But Leads Moneywise

CINCINNATI (AP) — Sandra Haynie hasn't won a Women's Golf tournament yet in 1968. But close finishes have boosted her into the lead in money winnings on the Ladies Professional Golf Association tour, LPGA headquarters announced today.

In the first four tournaments of the 1968 tour Miss Haynie has won $3,908. That put her less than $100 ahead of Kathy Whitworth, who has won one tournament and $3,837.

Court Rules Favorable to Athletic Club

NEW YORK (AP) — The New York Athletic Club has been successful in its attempt to quash a subpoena of its records by the City Commission on Human Rights.

Justice Hyman Korn of the Manhattan Supreme Court ruled Monday that the NYAC cannot be compelled to open its membership records to the commission.

The commission launched an investigation of the club after the NYAC track meet of Feb. 16 in Madison Square Garden. The meet was boycotted by many Negro athletes and picketed for its alleged exclusion of Negroes from membership.

Showdown in Hockey Play Is Nearing

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS
The St. Louis Blues, Chicago Black Hawks and Los Angeles Kings can take a major step toward the big money Stanley Cup finals tonight. But the Blues and Philadelphia Flyers already have paid a hefty price for their brawl-filled quarter-final series.

St. Louis, Chicago and Los Angeles each lead 3-2 in games in their best-of-seven series against the Flyers, New York Rangers and Minnesota North Stars, respectively. The Blues and Black Hawks will be at home while the Kings will play on the North Stars' ice.

Victories by the three leaders will set up semifinal series matching St. Louis and Los Angeles in the West Division and the Black Hawks against Montreal in the East. The Canadiens swept Boston 4-0 in their opening round set.

Players and coaches of the Blues and Flyers were fined a total of $3,800 Monday by Clarence Campbell, National Hockey League President, for their part in a brawl during last Saturday's sixth game in Philadelphia. Coach Keith Allen of Philadelphia was assessed $500 and Scotty Bowman, the Blues' skipper, was fined $400. In all, 25 players, 13 on the Blues, and 12 on Philadelphia, were fined amounts ranging from $100 to $275.

Players on winning teams in the quarter-finals and semifinals each receive $2,250. The Stanley Cup champions get $3,000 apiece for winning the final round series.

Not First But Best of Seven Times in Meet

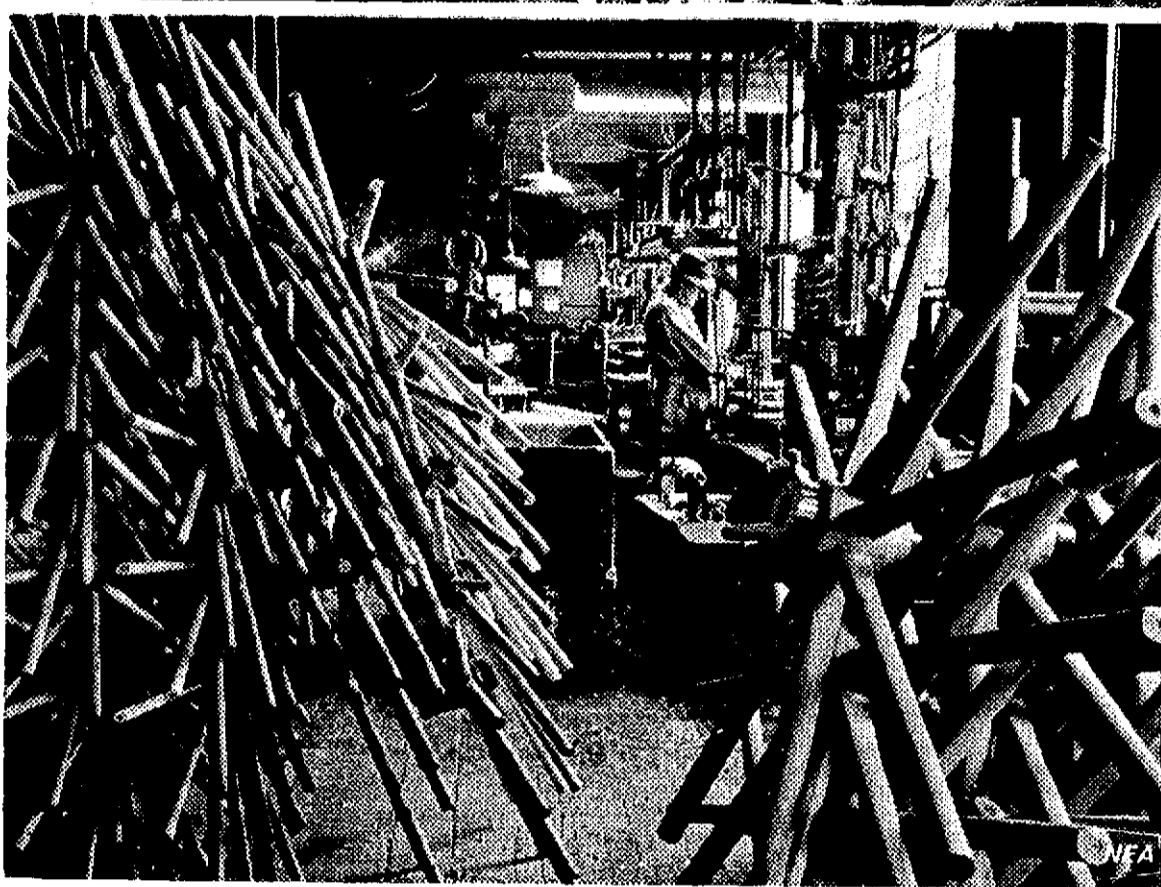

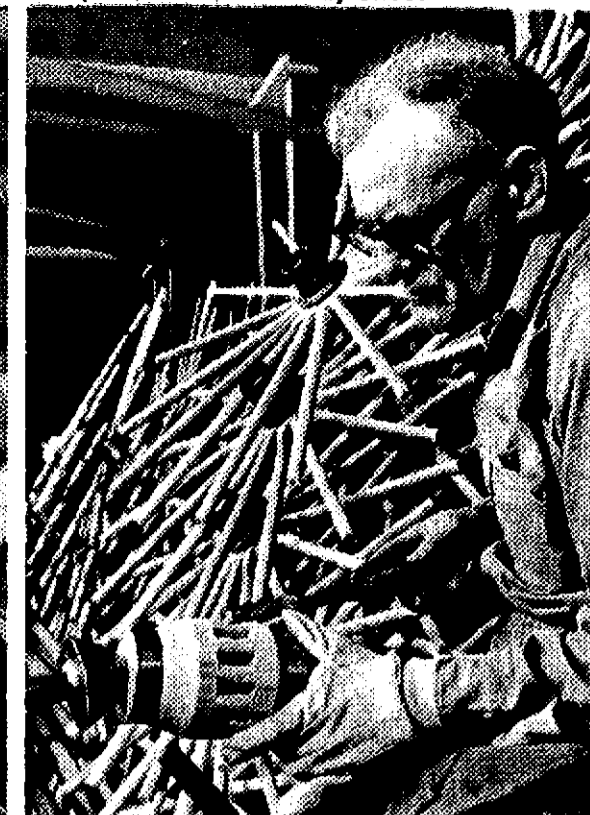

NAIROBI, Kenya (AP) — Zbigniew Nowicki and Patrick Cliff of Kenya didn't finish first but they turned out to be the best of the seven teams that completed the gruelling 16th East African Safari Motor Rally.

Peter Huth and Ian Grant of Kenya finished first by 15 minutes Monday, but Nowicki and Cliff won on points.

STILL ROLLING in spite of a stepped-up civilization, the West Chester, Pa., wagon wheel plant of Hoopes Brothers and Darlington Inc. turns out about 1,200 wooden wagon wheels a month. In its 102 years, the factory has produced wheels for the royal coach of Louis Napoleon; field artillery caissons used in the Spanish-American War and World War I; and circus wagons. Today, most of its business comes from the Amish, who still use wagons and buggies, and demands for replacement wheels on antiquated or restored vehicles. In top photos are two long-time employees: Clarence Trego, left, and Charles Gineley, who form part of the 15-man labor force. ## No Obstruction $380,400 Grant to Ft. Smith Art Preview

By BEN OLAN
Associated Press Sports Writer
NEW YORK (AP) — It was quiet and one could see everything without obstruction in the new Madison Square Garden Art Gallery Monday night.

The night before there had been bedlam in the Garden's big, main arena as 17,250 screaming spectators witnessed a classic Stanley Cup hockey game.

Culture, though, came quietly to the Garden with the press preview of its Art Gallery.

The people spoke softly and moved slowly around the 3,800 feet of the carpeted exhibition area. On view were 51 paintings, etchings and sculptures depicting outstanding athletes and great moments in sports. The collection is worth about $750,000.

There was Joe Louis knocking out Max Schmeling in their famous second fight, Jack Dempsey blasting Luis Firpo through the ropes and Bobby Jones hitting a golfball.

Several persons gathered around an impressive painting of Big Daddy Lipscomb and others were attracted by sculptures of Bob Coxy, Jesse Owens and Casey Stengel.

There was, too, a scene of a golf match painted by the great Rembrandt in 1654. Someone cracked, "I wonder if they had to fill out their own scorecards in those days."

The inaugural exhibition is titled "The Artist and The Sportsman," and will be opened to the public starting Friday. The admission charge is 50 cents.

The exhibitions, which will be changed about every two months, are being staged by the National Art Museum of Sports which says it hopes to "enlist on the side of art the public's intimate knowledge and enthusiasm for sport."

Soviet Linkup Reveals U.S. Space Lag

By BOB HORTON

AP Military Writer
WASHINGTON (AP) — The Soviet Union's second linkup of unmanned Cosmos satellites catches the U.S. military space project languishing nearly four years behind schedule.

The Air Force's manned orbiting laboratory program originally aimed for a first launch late last year or early 1968 but that goal has slipped because of technical problems to mid-1971, officials say.

In addition to the time lag the cost of MOL, as the program is known, has escalated from the originally estimated $1.5 billion to nearly $2.5 billion.

The Soviets, apparently getting set to put men into space again, reported Monday a successful linkup of two unmanned spaceships. They were separated again after 3 hours and 50 minutes.

Monday's linkup duplicated a feat first performed by the Soviet Union last Oct. 30.

This country's MOL program aims at sending a team of astronauts orbiting for a month of experiments to determine how well man can operate in space. The long-range view is that someday U.S. astronauts may be able to operate military command posts orbiting the earth.

The manned flights—to be preceded by two unmanned shots—will involve a two-part spacecraft lifted by a gigantic Titan 3C booster with two million pounds of thrust.

The front end will be a modified Gemini capsule in which two astronauts will ride skyward. Connected behind will be a 42-foot canister—like lab where the crew will live, work, eat and sleep in shirt-sleeve environment for 30 days, flying at

Bill to Provide Three Day Holidays Each Year Advanced by Group

By JOHN BECKLER
Associated Press Writer
WASHINGTON (AP) — Around the House Judiciary Committee they call it the Columbus Day caper and if it succeeds, four national holidays will provide three-day weekends each year.

A bill calling for the observance of Washington's Birthday, Memorial Day, Veterans Day and Columbus Day on Mondays has been approved by the committee. But don't pack that weekend bag yet.

A favorite of the business community, which thinks it would make for more efficient work and production schedules and less absenteeism—and strongly backed by the travel agencies and airlines—the bill hasn't stirred much enthusiasm among the general public.

And it has aroused surprisingly strong opposition from patriotic societies and veterans organizations with an interest in a specific holiday, and church groups with an interest in Sunday church attendance.

They've expressed fears that regular three-day holidays would lure people into unpatriotic and impious endeavors on those occasions.

Such opposition pretty well scuttled the original Monday holiday bill before the committee last year. When the first session of Congress ended, only Memorial Day remained in a bill that would have also moved Washington's birthday, Independence Day, Veterans Day and Thanksgiving to Monday.

It was then that Rep. Robert McClory, R-Ill., chief sponsor of the bill, discovered Christopher Columbus.

For years Americans of Italian descent have cherished the idea of a national holiday commemorating Columbus. And for years Rep. Peter W. Rodino, D-N.J., a senior judiciary committee member, has introduced bills establishing such a holiday.

Many states observe Oct. 12 as Columbus Day but the bills for a national holiday never got anywhere. They served mainly to stir counter campaigns by Americans of Scandinavian stock for a Lief Ericson Day in honor of the man they are convinced discovered America.

Rather than try to legislate history and reluctant to impose two new holidays on the nation, Chairman Emanuel Celler, D-N.Y., kept the Columbus Day bills well bottled up.

They one day McClory looked at Rodino. Rodino looked at McClory. And a new bill was born.

With Rodino delivering the Democrats who have large Italian blocs in their districts and McClory lining up the Republicans, Celler was outmaneuvered and the bill was approved last month.

It would fix Washington's Birthday on the third Monday in February, Memorial Day on the last Monday in May, Columbus Day on the second Monday in October and Veterans Day on the fourth Monday in October. It would apply only to federal employees unless states enacted similar legislation.

But chances are that without strenuous lobbying by its backers, the bill may not get much further. And if it should get to the floor, Lief Ericson's friends are sure to be waiting.

Old Miss Is Beaten by Arkansas

HELENA, Ark. (AP)—Arkansas State University pitcher Rusty Bourge, a sophomore, scattered five hits as Arkansas State University defeated the University of Mississippi 2-1 here Monday.

The victory was the Indians' eighth straight and gave them an 11-4-1 record for the season. Ole Miss is 13-3.

ASU scored two runs in the first on a double by Jim Callaway, a single by Jim Mueller and a single by Wayne Pitcock.

The victory lifted Bourge's record to 4-1. It was his fourth straight complete game. Rebel pitcher Fred Setser gave up six hits and accounted for his team's lone run with a leadoff home run in the eighth.

Johnson Files Against Hammerschmidt

LITTLE ROCK (AP)—Lewis Johnson Jr., of Fayetteville filed Monday as a Democratic candidate for Congress from the 3rd District and criticized the incumbent, John Paul Hammerschmidt, R-Ark.

Johnson said he would campaign on the revitalization of rural Arkansas.

"In order to be able to revitalize rural Arkansas, the people must have someone to represent them who has compassion for people, one who has the knowledge of their needs and one who understand their hopes and their dreams," Johnson said.

He said Hammerschmidt "has only exhibited an almost complete lack of interest and knowledge concerning the many problems of rural Arkansas."

"Being almost totally negative in one's voting and in one's attitude does not solve any problems in the past nor does it present any hope for progress in the future," Johnson said.

Pair Hurls One-Hitters, Split Games

RUSSELLVILLE, Ark. (AP) — Jimmy Allison and Bill Blevins each pitched one-hitters as Arkansas Tech and School of the Ozarks at Branson, Mo., split a doubleheader here Monday.

Blevins pitched Ozarks to a 3-2 victory in the first game. Gary Jackson struck out 13 in a losing effort.

Allison struck out seven as Tech won the second game 4-0.

Hope Native Worked as Guardette

JOYCE WOODS

The Sunday-Star Bulletin & Advertiser carried a column called "Date Book" by Nancy Harlocker's on Sunday, March 31, and part of it told about the work of a Hope woman.

The article related to Interstate Security Service uses women for guards or guardettes. Joyce Woods, daughter of Mrs. Johnnie Mae Young of Hope, is one of the guards in the article. Born and raised in Hope, this is the article about Joyce:

"Another Guardette, Joyce Woods, had to give up her work this week to devote more time to her studies at the University of Hawaii where she majors in sociology.

"It's amazing what people will do," Joyce said, as she revealed an assortment of schemes that would fill a book. "Children as young as six have tried to outwit me. One will be watching me while the other is stealing. Even some mothers who know their children are stealing don't try to stop them."

Among her other observations Joyce said is her conclusion that university students are great offenders. "I think that education means so much to them that they spend all their money for tuition and steal to eat. One young man I stopped told me he had eaten dinner in a particular store for two years while getting an education."

On another occasion while in plainclothes, she encountered an obnoxious thief and asked, "How can I get some food, too? He answered, 'Man I'll tell you, I and described ways to conceal food between his arms and body and in bulky jackets or large pockets. Now I watch people wearing long-tailed shirts, large jackets or two pairs of pants."

Customers' reaction to female guards, Joyce noted, were more favorable in Niu than in Kaneohe. "High-incident location for shoplifting," she said. "Children are more of a problem in Niu while adults seem to be the worst offenders in Kaneohe."

Recalling several experiences, Joyce continued, "I've seen whole families come in and eat their dinner—cheese, hot dogs, bread, cookies—before leaving the store. I've watched others open myomats and put their fingers in to taste it, or squeeze a tomato till the juice runs out. But people won't do these things if they know you're watching."

"Others have come up to me and said, 'How nice to see you.' Five minutes later they're put-thing something into their purses."

When she mentioned cigarettes, Joyce warned, "People will pick up a carton, remove several packs, then return the carton to the shelf. With meat, I've seen them take a $4 price off a roast and substitute a smaller price."

"I also watch for shopping bags—especially if they're carrying one inside another. You'd be amazed at how much merchandise a person can conceal between two bags."

Saying that she is sorry to give up Guardette work, Joyce added, "It's been rewarding. Every day I left a store I knew I had saved somebody some money. It's a good feeling."

Joyce has been in Hawaii for two and half years with her husband, Willie E. Woods, stationed at Pearl Harbor. Her education, she hopes will lead to an eventual degree and a career in criminology.

South's three diamond opening in this U.S. Aces practice game was effective in shutting Bobby Wolff and Mike Lawrence out of the bidding. It was just as well that it did because if South had just passed, the best East and West could make would be a part score.

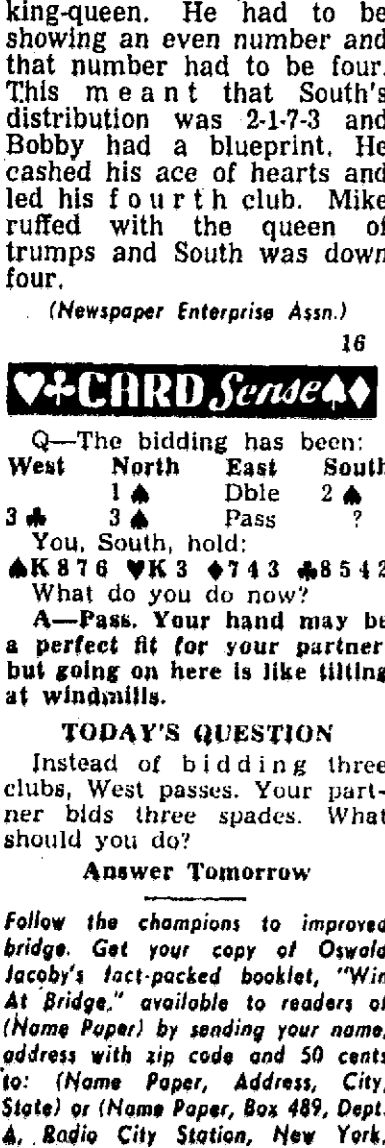

South was unlucky to find a dummy without any trumps and it would have been a cinch for Bobby and Mike to set him three tricks; but our team is trying for perfection in both bidding and defense and they managed to set South a fourth trick.

Bobby made his normal opening lead of the deuce of clubs—fourth best of his longest suit. Mike's king forced between his arms and body and in bulky jackets or large pockets. Now I watch people wearing long-tailed shirts, large jackets or two pairs of pants."

HELEN HELP US! by Helen Battel

YOUTH ASKED FOR IT! This column is for young people, their problems and pleasures, their troubles and fun. As with the rest of Helen Help US, it welcomes laughs but won't dodge a serious question with a brush-off.

Send your teenage questions to Helen Help US! This newspaper.

IS "GOING STEADY" GOING OUT?

Dear Helen: Thank, thank you, for getting arguments started on this "going steady" business. Actually, the "for's" and "against's" are divided about half and half at our school, but the ones who are against the "steady system" have been afraid to peep, because they'd be put down as either: 1. Siding with "the enemy"—adults. 2. So unpopular they're jealous; or 3. Flirts, and not to be trusted. But when you printed the teen viewpoints for us as well as against steady dating, you really got discussions going. The kids no longer shrug, "That's the way it is, why fight it?" If they want to play the field now, they say so! And more of them are saying so all the time.

As you said last summer, the phrase, "going steady" has filtered down to junior high and even elementary schools, so the label is going out of favor among older teens, but the "idea" of dating "steadily" only one person at a time still makes it tough on us "mix now, match later" people. It's called "going together" here, but it means the same. Maybe the teen "Stamp Out Steadying" button campaign will go down in history as the beginning of a New Deal in Dating. —HOPE SO!

Dear Helen: Might could, But I'm not going to hold my breath. —H

Dear Helen: "Going Steady" dates back to bobby sox days, maybe before. The bobby sox phase lasted about 25 years, and fizzled. If anybody called a teen "bobbysoxer" now, she wouldn't know what it meant. I'll bet kids 25 years from now will be asking, "Moin, what was it like to go steady?" Just as my side ask, "Did you REALLY have to color your own magazine?" —SEER

Dear Helen: Thanks for the S.O.S. button. When you offered them last year, I thought they were for the birds—but since then I've found out that going steady—to my guy at least—was for the birds AND BEES. I didn't buy that, so I bought an S.O.S. button instead, and have found out it's lots more fun—PLAYING THE FIELD.

Dear Helen: In our "button age" yours seems to use the most appropriate. I'm a freshman in a State college where girls out-number fellows three to one. Being male, I figure there's no harm to advertise, sock a button to me, please. —MIKE

DOCTOR'S MAILBAG
Grapefruit Stimulates, Doesn't Curb, Appetite
By WAYNE G. BRANDSTADT, M.D.

Q—There is a new theory that grapefruit before each meal will not only curb the appetite but also burn up the fats and carbohydrates in the system. Is this true?

A—No, to both parts of the question. Grapefruit is often given as a first course to stimulate the appetite. It can't both curb and stimulate. Neither does it have any mysterious burning power, despite the claims of the fad-of-the-month club.

Q—Would you recommend tomato juice for arthritic patients? What foods are best for elderly people?

A—There is no specific diet for arthritis. Insofar as tomato juice may be a part of a well-balanced diet, it can be taken as a food, not as a treatment, for arthritis.

Elderly persons need a balanced diet just like everybody else. Unfortunately, a lot of them, for one reason or another, don't get it.

Q—I am 65 and have been warned by friends against eating cheese. I have eaten about a pound a week for many years with no ill effects that I know of. In the last two months, my nails have been breaking. Could eating so much cheese be the reason?

A—No—cheese is good for you. A lack of an adequate amount of vitamins A and D in your diet is one possible cause for your brittle nails.

Q—Will eating too much black pepper do any harm? Does it have any beneficial effect?

A—Too much of anything is harmful. In small amounts, pepper stimulates the appetite but in persons with peptic ulcer, hiatus hernia, gall bladder disease or any other condition calling for a bland diet, this stimulation becomes an irritation. The amount of tolerance for highly spiced foods varies widely from person to person and in the same person at different times in his life.

Q—What is the vegetable gum that I find listed as an ingredient of many packaged foods? Why is it added to foods?

A—The gums used as additives include carob bean, carboxy methyl cellulose, and others.

If a French horn were unwound it would measure more than 17 feet, says 'The World Almanac'. Similarly, the trombone would measure 8 feet-8 and the trumpet almost 5 feet. No amount of coiling or uncoiling will change the timbre or characteristic sound of a given brass instrument. Cylindrical and conical variations in an instrument's tubing and mouthpiece, together with the length of tubing, determine its timbre.

ragheen (Irish moss) and guar. All are harmless. They are added to insure a smoother consistency, prevent separating of some of the components and to guard against evaporation of the flavor in volatile oils.

Q—I have heard that raw cabbage juice will cure an ulcer but may cause stomach cancer. Is this true?

A—Fresh cabbage juice has been used in the treatment of peptic ulcer but has never gained wide acceptance. It will not cause cancer.

HOLLYWOOD—(NEA)—James Garner is back playing Maverick. They don't call it that, of course—they call it "Support Your Local Sheriff!"—but it's practically the same character.

"It seems to be," Jim said. "If I'd known it was going to be so much like Maverick, I don't think I would have done it."

He's kidding. He knew. After all, the picture is being made by Jim's own company, Cherokee Productions. As an example of how personal a production this is, consider this—Jim wanted Joan Hackett for his leading lady. His leading lady is Joan Hackett.

They were shooting on MGM's back lot, on a western street that was newly old-painted. Plenty of extras and horses milled about as Garner drove the bad guys out of town by throwing rocks at them, something Maverick might have done.

"I'm going to aim the rocks at that woodpile," Garner said, as they lined up the shot. "But watch your heads—I've been known to miss."

One of the takes was ruined when a horse, tied to a railing, skittishly jumped around when director Burt Kennedy called "Action."

"Let's not say that word," Garner said. "Instead of A-C-T-I-O-N, just wave at me."

Kennedy, one of Hollywood's pleasantest directors, is blessed by good weather and a co-operative cast and a great crew. With so much Hollywood production overseas, he had his pick of technicians, and has nothing but the best. As a result, the company is two days ahead of schedule, after only 10 days of shooting.

"Doing a comedy western is tough," Kennedy says. "You're treading on hallowed ground."

For Joan Hackett, "Support Your Local Sheriff!" is a first—at an attempt at broad, almost-slapstick comedy. Since she is a first-rate actress, as well as the possessor of a fine sense of comedy, nobody is worried about her cutting it. Garner thinks she's doing wonderfully.

She had one scene climbing a tree. The script wanted her to have nothing much on at the time, to lend a little cheesecake to the general proceedings. But Joan, partly out of modesty but mostly out of a feel for what is funny, thought it would be better if she revealed an expanse of red underwear. Both Garner and Kennedy went along with her suggestion.

Joan, a native and dedicated New Yorker, has adjusted slowly to California living. She married Richard Mulligan—television's The Hero—and tried to settle down and be a good Los Angeleno.

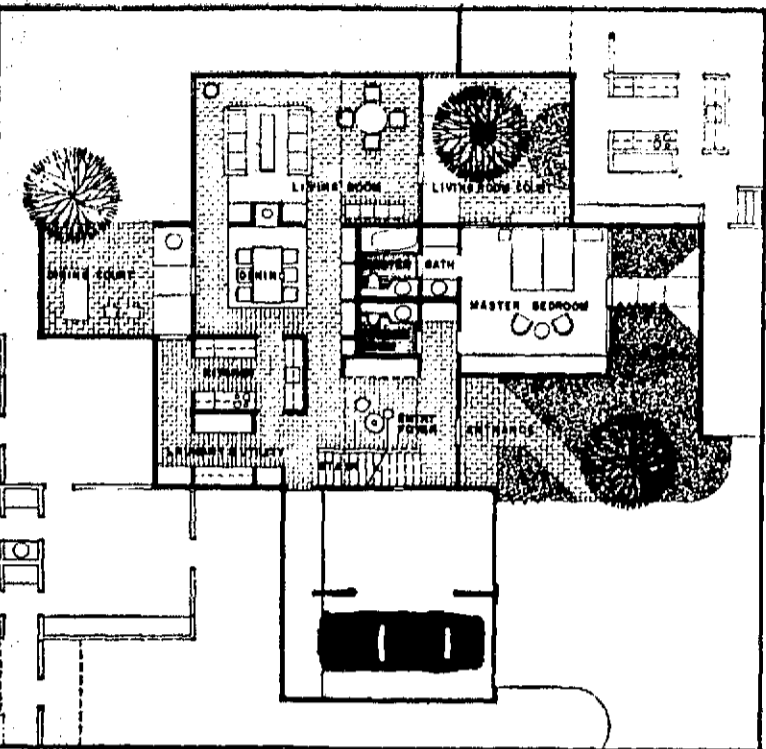

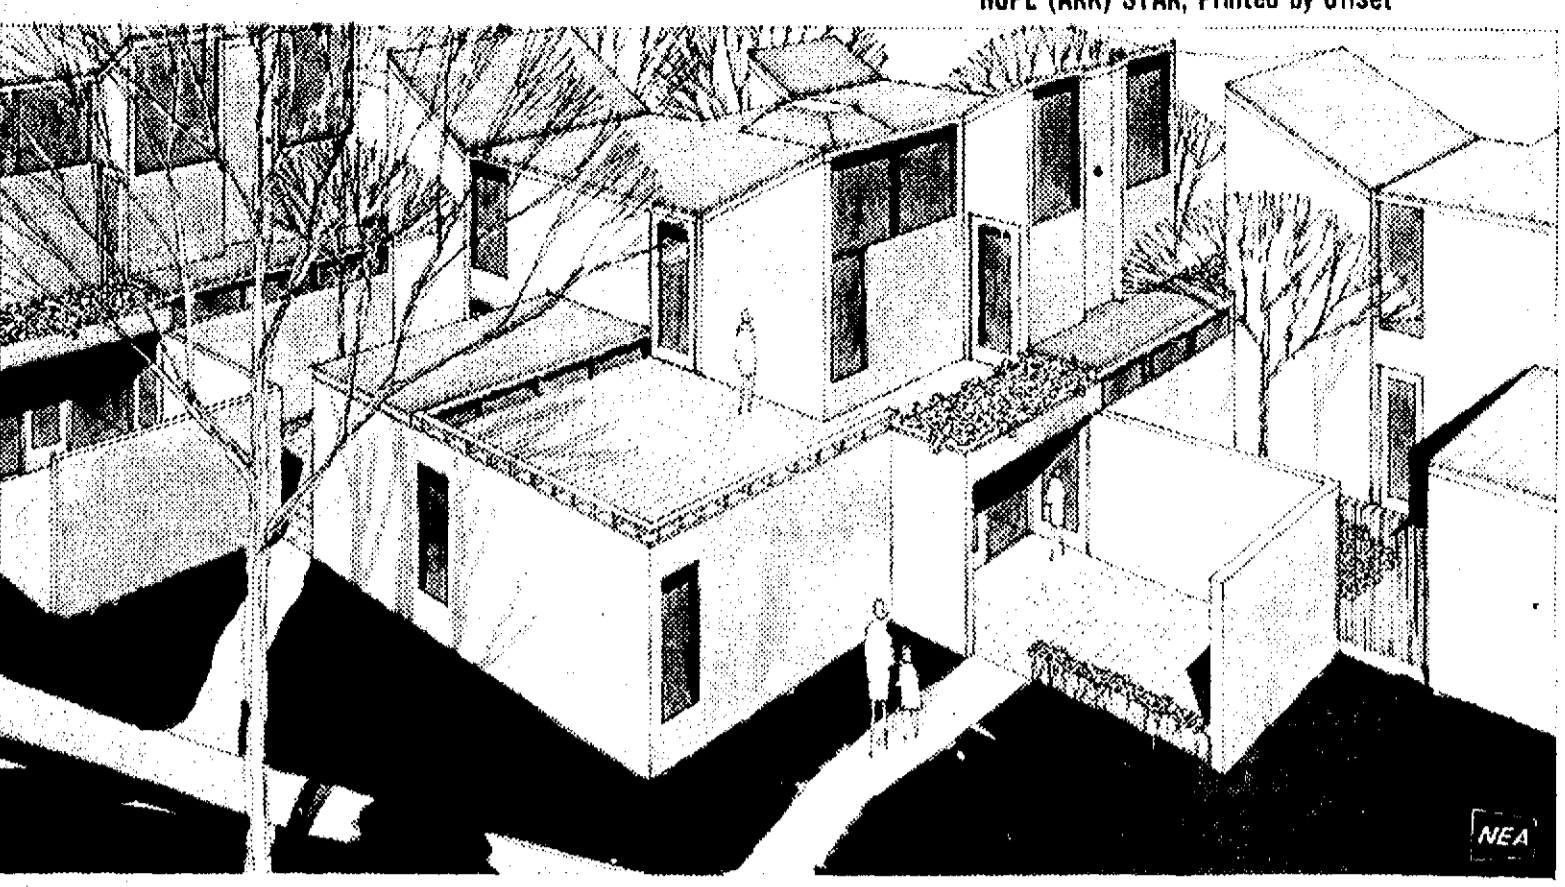

"I missed New York," she says. "I missed not being able to go into Bloomingdale's and see everybody I know. Here I was stuck up on top of a hill—a lovely hill, but still a hill—and I never saw anybody. I used to drive around and when I stopped for a red light, I'd smile at the people in the next car, just to have somebody to smile at."

I cried at least once a week. So we moved to an apartment overlooking Saks. I could watch them unloading the merchandise. It wasn't Bloomingdale's, but was better than nothing.

She wasn't happy about her work, either. After "The Group"—rave reviews, awards, the whole laudatory scene—strangely nothing much happened. She says she had eight months of nothing.

But then she did "Will Penny" and now this, and things are better all around.

Back on the set, Jim Garner was shooting a promotional is the name of an open-plan, two-story modern dwelling with an upside down roof. The four-bedroom, two-and-a-half-bath house will be a feature of the 25th anniversary Cleveland Home and Flower Show and will be built inside the city's Public Auditorium. The show, which runs March 2-10, has been named the largest combined exposition of its type in the United States, according to the National Association of Exposition Managers. Architect James G. Herman designed "LIVE-IN '68" to stand by itself or as part of a condominium cluster community, above. Plan, left, shows layout of the first floor. In addition, there are children's bedrooms, playroom and bath on the second floor. An intricately detailed scale model of 80 such homes will be exhibited, depicting part of a residential community possibility for the future.

ENVELOPES OUT ON TONY SHOW

By JOAN CROSBY
NEA Entertainment Editor

NEW YORK—(NEA)—There's a lot that can be said for Alexander Cohen, a flamboyant, yet tasteful Broadway producer with plenty of imagination.

But the thing that may earn him a place in some history book one day is the fact that he is producing an awards show, and not once during the course of the show will anyone say, "The envelope, please."

Cohen's production is Broadway '68: The Tony Awards, set for NBC-TV on April 21. Angela Lansbury and Peter Ustinov are co-hosts. Presenters include Audrey Hepburn, Robert Goulet, Paul Newman, Joanne Woodward, Eydie Gorme, Steve Lawrence, Carol Channing, Pearl Bailey and Leslie Uggams. Not one of them will get to ask for an envelope.

"Every awards show goes like this," Cohen said. "The presenter reads a list of nominees, says 'The winner is—may I have the envelope please? Where are my glasses? Oh, God, I can't get the envelope open. I'm so excited!' Every actor is up there trying to make a three-act play out of his one line."

On the Tony telecast, an electronic theater marquee will light up with the names of the nominees, a button will be pushed, and the winner's name will appear.

Cohen, who rescued the Tony Awards from deteriorating into complete obscurity, did such a good job that last year's show has been nominated for an Emmy Award. The show even got a rave review from the New York Times.

Telecast this year on NBC.

film for Christmas seals. You'll see it on television next winter. Better do your Christmas shopping early.

(Newspaper Enterprise Assn.)

TV for the first time, from 10-11:30 on a Sunday night, opposite reruns on CBS and ABC, the show is expected to have an audience of 50 million people. Last season, on another network with fewer stations, and opposite healthier competition, the show played to 25 million.

Cohen, who has produced such Broadway SRO hits as Richard Burton's "Hamlet" and "Black Comedy," says he is seriously thinking of packaging Broadway productions for TV.

"The entire New York legitimate theater, in a good year, plays to 12 million people at its peak. Here in one night we'll play to nearly five times that. I'm beginning to be hooked on playing to 50 million people."

"Special events has always been my stock in trade. I have been offered a lot for TV, but when the Tony Awards came along, they suited my talents and they were beneficial to the Broadway theater."

"Now I like TV so much I am thinking of forming a TV production unit and getting involved. I think I might be in the unique position of asking clients what their needs are and then designing shows for them."

"I think in a year's time we will be telecasting plays from Broadway. It's inevitable. I would like to do them in an actual performance for TV and that means I will be doing it. I don't usually think I would like to do something without doing it. I see no reason why plays like 'There's a Girl in My Soup' or 'The Price' or 'The Prime of Miss Jean Brodie' couldn't be telecast live from a Broadway theater with an audience watching. Some small amount of restaging would be necessary for the cameras, but not enough to spoil the audience's viewpoint."

Damsel in Distress

Gallantry may impel a bystander to go to the aid of a damsel in distress. But if gallantry doesn't, does law? Do you have any legal obligation to help someone—man, woman, or child—whom you see under attack by a third person?

Generally speaking, the answer is no. If you are a total stranger, having played no role in bringing on the difficulty, you have no duty—legally—to go to the rescue.

Thus, bystanders who looked on and did nothing, while a drunken youth slashed a hotel clerk with a knife, were held not liable to the victim.

This doctrine is based partly on our traditions of individualism, partly on the difficulties of devising and enforcing a legal standard of unselfishness.

Nevertheless, courts have shown an increasing readiness to find a duty-to-help when there is some special relationship between the bystander and the victim. For then, in a sense, they are no longer total strangers.

What kind of relationship may create a duty of assistance?

One example is the relationship between a merchant and his customer. For instance, the owner of a restaurant was held liable for failing to help a young woman being assaulted by a pair of trouble

Challenge by Rockefeller Bothers Nixon

By JACK BELL
AP Political Writer
WASHINGTON (AP) — If Gov. Nelson A. Rockefeller's likely challenge for the Republican presidential nomination is disturbing Richard M. Nixon, the former vice president is concealing it with a "come on in" public stance.

Charles McWhorter, a top Nixon lieutenant, said in an interview Nixon believes a Rockefeller candidacy would revive public interest in the Republican convention.

"It certainly will liven things up," said McWhorter.

Most of the starch went out of the GOP contest when Michigan Gov. George Romney withdrew and Rockefeller subsequently announced he would not become an active candidate for the nomination but would accept a draft.

The New York governor and Nixon will match major speeches before the American Society of Newspaper Editors in Washington this week. The New York governor's appearance is being touted as a sort of unofficial re-entry into the nomination race.

On the Democratic side of the race, Sen. Eugene J. McCarthy got back into campaign harness today after a long Easter weekend with a visit to Charleston, W. Va.

McCarthy's chief rival, Sen. Robert F. Kennedy, D-N.Y., scored heavily with predominantly Negro crowds in Gary, Ind., Monday. Kennedy was also well received when he dropped in on Fargo, N.D., for a speech Monday night, though many young people who turned out to see him were jiggling McCarthy banners.

And in St. Louis, where 17 of the nation's 24 Democratic governors met to size up the political situation, they were unable Monday even to agree on a resolution expressing support in advance for the party's presidential nominee, whoever he may be.

The Iowa State Republican Convention, which began meeting today to pick a delegate slate, may give some line on how much latent support there is for Rockefeller and Gov. Ronald Reagan of California.

Representatives of Rockefeller and Reagan are pulling for an uninstructed delegation. Nixon wants the 24-vote slate pledged to him.

While Nixon's forces consider Rockefeller their biggest threat, they are not taking their eyes off Reagan. Expected to have California's 86 convention votes as a favorite son, Reagan has said he is not a serious contender for the nomination.

Nevertheless, he sent F. Clinton White, a 1964 delegate hunter for Barry Goldwater, to Iowa to look out for his interests there.

White told the members of Reagan's favorite-son delegation in Los Angeles Monday that the governor is a leading contender for the nomination and would win in a wide-open convention.

Terminal Bids Requested by Engineers

LITTLE ROCK (AP) — The Little Rock District of the Army Engineers has asked for bids for the construction of a marine terminal on the Arkansas River just upstream from the Dardanelle Lock and Dam in Pope County.

The structure will be used as an operating terminal for lock and dam repairs and survey and reconnaissance employees of the Army Engineers.

A fleet of work boats will be stationed at the terminal and will operate from Lock and Dam 7 at Little Rock to Lock and Dam 13 near Fort Smith.

Bids will be opened about May 23. Construction is expected to begin some time in June. The job is estimated to cost more than $500,000 and will take about nine months to complete.

Hanoi Says U.S. Lacks Good Will

TOKYO (AP) — North Vietnam accused the United States today of displaying a "lack of good will" by rejecting two sites proposed by Hanoi for initial peace meetings.

The official Communist party newspaper Nhan Dan noted that U.S. officials had said contacts were continuing with Hanoi to select a mutually agreed site.

Hanoi May Have Picked Peace Envoys

SAIGON (AP) — North Vietnam announced two high-level appointments today, arousing speculation in Saigon that they would be Hanoi's representatives at peace talks with the United States.

Hanoi broadcast the announcement that Xuan Thuy had been appointed a government minister and that Tran Quang Huy had been named chairman of the cultural and educational board of the premier's office.

Analysts of North Vietnamese affairs in Saigon, assessing the titles given the two men and their background, speculated that Thuy might head Hanoi's negotiating team and Huy might be its chief spokesman.

Thuy, 55, also known as Nguyen Xuan Thuy, was foreign minister of North Vietnam from 1963 to 1965 and more recently has been a member of the Communist Party central committee secretariat and head of the central committee's foreign relations department.

Huy, 46, has been deputy director of the central committee's propaganda and education — agitprop — committee, also known as the propaganda indoctrination department, and was an alternate member of the central committee.

The United States to delay contacts and appease public protest," the article said.

It was broadcast from Hanoi several hours after President Johnson arrived in Honolulu and reiterated American hopes for a start to preliminary peace talks.

Nhan Dan recalled once again that Johnson had said in 1966 U.S. representatives would go anywhere and at any time for a meeting with the North Vietnamese, even if there "only be a room and a table."

Traffic Group Meets Weekly

LITTLE ROCK (AP) — State Insurance Commissioner Allan W. Horne said Monday that once-a-week hearings would be conducted by a committee appointed recently by Gov. Winthrop Rockefeller to search for new methods of compensating automobile accident victims.

Horne said the hearings would begin soon after the first week in May. The hearings will be discontinued after all those interested in appearing have given their views.

CHINESE ART of Ivory carving has reached a high degree of perfection in Hong Kong, where more than 3,000 skilled workmen create figurines and even more complex designs, such as the concentric ball, top right, containing up to 11 layers of ivory loosely placed inside each other. Using traditional tools, a craftsman, top left, may take several months to produce one article. A carving such as Hong Hai, top center, sells in Hong Kong for about $165, U.S. money. Several craftsmen combined their talents to produce the two-foot-long Chinese garden, above, carved from tip of an elephant's tusk.

No Tax Hike Unless It's Necessary

LITTLE ROCK (AP) — Gov. Winthrop Rockefeller said Monday that he did not intend at this time to "request new general revenues if there is any possibility at all of operating within the limits of current resources for the balance of the biennium."

Rockefeller had previously said he felt that a tax increase was inevitable but not necessarily this year.

The governor said in a prepared statement that he had urged the heads of all state agencies to "effect every possible operating economy."

"Although I find the need to curtail programs distasteful," Rockefeller said, "I believe I have an obligation to make every effort to operate within the limits of current revenue during my present term of office."

Disagrees With Officer About Bars

LITTLE ROCK (AP) — Frank Whittington, manager of the Petroleum Club here and president of the newly organized Arkansas Private Club Managers Association, says he disagrees with a statement by Police Chief R. E. Brians that open bars would be easier to police than private clubs.

"While I am not a law enforcement officer and don't know all their problems, I believe it is only reasonable to assume that legitimate, licensed private clubs with restricted membership rolls would be less likely to cause problems for the police than open bars, which would be obligated to serve any

Marine Gave His Life to Save Others

WASHINGTON (AP) — Marine Pfc. Douglas E. Dickey of Rossburg, Ohio, and five other men were pinned down by enemy gunfire in Vietnam when someone yelled, "Grenade!"

Dickey, 21, dove on it. He died but the others survived.

"He must have realized it was too late for us to take cover," recalled one of the others, Hospitalman 3.C. Gregory R. Long. "He gave me one short glance and lunged forward, deliberately covering the grenade with his body."

Today, Dickey will be posthumously honored with his nation's highest decoration, the Medal of Honor. Secretary of the Navy Paul R. Ignatius will present it to his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Harold Dickey.

Dickey was killed March 26, 1967, in Quang Tri Province, South Vietnam.

person who walked in off the street," he said Saturday. "It is entirely possible that Chief Brians has had bad experience with some private clubs under the old system, but we sincerely believe that the state as a whole would be better off with legalized private clubs than with open bars."

Whittington said his group was drafting private club legislation and hoped to have Gov. Winthrop Rockefeller include it in his call for a special session of the legislature next month.

Race Tensions Can Be Taken Into Account

LITTLE ROCK (AP) — The attorney general's office said today Arkansas prisons may not practice racial discrimination, but can "take into account racial tensions" in maintaining security.

The opinion, written by Asst. Atty. Gen. Henry Ginger, went to William P. Lytle of Clarks-ville, a member of the state Board of Correction.

Lytle asked what was the effect on Arkansas of a U. S. Court ruling last month holding Alabama laws on segregation in prison and jails unconstitutional.

There can be little doubt in light of this ruling that segregation in Arkansas prisons also is prohibited, Lytle said.

At present, Tucker Prison Farm is populated only by white prisoners while Cummins Prison Farm maintains segregated sleeping quarters and working practices.

Ginger cited a concurring opinion by three U.S. Supreme Court justices who wrote that "prison authorities have the right, acting in good faith and in particularized circumstances, to take into account racial tensions in maintaining security, discipline and good order in prisons and jails."

Student Pilot Gave Police a Hard Time

SURREY, B.C. (AP) — A 38-year-old student pilot made a score of passes in a light plane Monday between the center span of a busy four-lane bridge and the Fraser River 148 feet below.

After buzzing the Port Mann Bridge, part of the Trans-Canada Highway 18 miles east of Vancouver, he landed the rented plane safely on a nearby field. The man held off police for an hour with what police thought was a pistol but turned out to be a gold-colored cigarette case before he was captured. Police said his wrists were slashed and bleeding.

Police identified him as John Hogan of Surrey. He was charged with attempted suicide.

Financial Aid to Students

WASHINGTON (AP) — William J. Cohen, acting secretary of the Department of Health, Education and Welfare, says an estimated 1,333 Arkansas college students will receive financial aid from the federally supported College Work-Study Program during the second half of this year.

The program aids students who need money to attend college. Cohen said more than $82 million in federal grants would be made available to students throughout the nation by the Office of Education from July 1 through Dec. 31.

Cohen said $1,573,204 had been allocated for Arkansas.

Surplus of Women Workers in Conway

CONWAY, Ark. (AP) — The manager of the Conway office of the Employment Security Division said today the Labor Department's designation of Conway last week as a persistent unemployment area was the result of a surplus of women workers.

Elmer Fiddler said there was no backlog of unemployed men in any category. He said his office couldn't supply the demand for men workers and could place 100 in factory jobs now if they were available.

Fiddler said, however, that 1,438 women who want work couldn't find jobs. He said many of the unemployed women were without jobs because of seasonal opportunities.

Mountain View also was designated as an area of persistent unemployment.

Go-Go Dancers Lose Crowd

SAN FRANCISCO (AP) — Six night club go-go dancers, wearing barrels to protect their modesty, drew a big audience Monday in Civic Center at a demonstration to protest taxes.

But suddenly the crowd surged away and the girls learned a fact about human nature. A man protesting the Vietnam war was passing out 60 one-dollar bills, the portion of his taxes he figured would go toward the war.

All Clues in Slaying Lead to Deadend

By DON MCKEE

Associated Press Writer
BIRMINGHAM, Ala. (AP) — Deadend clues to a man who vanished without a trace apparently confronted FBI agents today in their investigation of the sniper slaying of Dr. Martin Luther King Jr.

False leads multiplied in the hunt for Eric Starvo Galt, a mysterious quiet-talking man whose last known address was a Birmingham rooming house. His former landlord said Monday he had identified drawings shown by FBI agents as resembling Eric Galt.

"It's him," said Peter Chaper, 72, who runs a two-story Southside boarding house where an Eric Galt lived for six weeks last fall.

Galt's abandoned white Mustang was impounded last Thursday by the FBI in Atlanta. It fit the description of a car seen leaving the scene after King was killed April 4 by a sniper firing from a rooming house in Memphis, Tenn.

Memphis witnesses described the suspected assassin, who registered as John Willard at a rooming house opposite King's motel, as about six feet and sandy-haired and "a clean, neat man."

No trace of Willard has apparently been found.

An FBI alert for Eric Starvo Galt in a white Mustang was issued in Florida last Thursday, but was canceled. However, the FBI has continued a search for Galt's whereabouts or clues to his past.

After Chaper disclosed what his boarder said of his work and background, Associated Press inquiries turned up blanks.

Is there a real Eric Starvo Galt? The FBI was asked, but declined comment. Neither would the FBI say why Galt was wanted, though the Florida alert had sought only to spot the man, not arrest him. No warrant had been issued then.

The man known as Eric Galt had said he was employed at a Mississippi shipyard, but there was no record of him. He claimed he held Louisiana driver's license six years ago, but no record was found in the files.

There are mysteries within the mystery: Galt left the Birmingham boarding house last Oct. 7, saying he had a ship job in Mobile, Ala., but in December, he turned in the keys to his safety deposit box at the Birmingham Trust National Bank.

In addition, a duplicate driver's license for Eric Starvo Galt was mailed to the Birmingham address March 1, nearly seven months after he left, and it apparently vanished. The Birmingham post office indicated no forwarding address was left for Galt.

"The papers said he went down March 1 to ask for a duplicate license and he put the same address, which was wrong. He wasn't here," said Chaper, who recalls Galt as "nice and friendly, quiet."

Costs More for French Poodle's Hairdo Than It Does for His Wife

By HAL BOYLE

NEW YORK (AP) — Jumping to conclusions:

It costs more today for a man to buy his French poodle a good hair trim than it does to pay for one for his wife—but look at the results he gets. It is often a better investment. A wife comes back from the barber looking like a French poodle does before it goes.

Age makes cowards of most of us. Few people over 40, no matter how much they enjoy a simple pleasure like an ice cream cone, will eat one unless they are accompanied by a child. Then they can do it without feeling self-conscious.

Any doctor will tell you that 15 minutes a day in the sun are all you need. But the parks are studded with naps who sit on a bench all day with their eyes closed and holding an aluminum reflector under their chin in order to get a tan that can only help ruin their skin.

Detroit Antipoverty Audit Shows Gross Misuse of U.S. Funds

By DICK BARNES

Associated Press Writer
WASHINGTON (AP) — A

General Accounting Office report says the Detroit antipoverty administration has given the government an inaccurate and misleading information on participants and tried to get financial credit for facilities that weren't used.

The report to Congress on a GAO audit also found "duplication of administrative effort and cost" in the Detroit program which it said the U.S. office of Economic Opportunity has been unable to correct. In this connection, the GAO, which is an arm of Congress criticized use of a Catholic church agency.

The 86-page report was released shortly after The Associated Press reported that the GAO, the Detroit city auditor's office and a state legislative committee all were looking into operations of the antipoverty agency—the Mayor's Committee for Human Resources Development, headed by Mayor Jerome P. Cavanagh.

The GAO already is at work on a new audit of the Detroit program. Its published report covered the 1965 and 1966 fiscal years.

Detroit has received about $50 million in federal antipoverty funds. Only New York and Chicago have gotten more. Detroit also is one of only two cities whose major antipoverty agency is an arm of city government.

The report said rent was charged to the antipoverty program even for some days on which other organizations used the rooms.

The GAO said it rechecked the rental situation after bringing the matter to OEO's attention and found it still was unsatisfactory. It recommended that "all past and present claims of the Board of Education be revalued."

The first-degree murder trial of Mrs. Myrtle Clark, which has been delayed three times, is due to get under way this morning in Lawrence Circuit Court.

Mrs. Clark, 47, of Walnut Ridge, is charged with the shooting death of her husband, Millard M. Clark, March 18, 1967. Mrs. Clark was charged in the slaying last April 25.

Attorneys took six hours Monday to select the all-male jury from 44 prospective jurors.

The trial was postponed in November 1967 when defense attorney Fred M. Pickens Jr. of Newport was hospitalized and again in January when a witness for the prosecution was in the hospital. Then the trial was postponed yet again, about three weeks ago, because of the illness of Pickens.

rather than an independent non-profit corporation. The other is Chicago.

The GAO said some participation figures provided by the Detroit agency—and on which the Office of Economic Opportunity had to rely for future planning—were inflated.

One report for a particular school program listed 7,539 participants. But in checking school-by-school enrollment figures, the GAO said it found 4,000 fewer participants.

The GAO said the Detroit Board of Education—to whom the mayor's committee contracted some antipoverty education programs—tried to get too much financial credit for classroom space it provided.

The city was required to contribute 10 percent of the cost of antipoverty programs. Value of the space provided was allowed to count toward this contribution. The GAO said it checked $342,160 in claims and found only $71,855 was justified.

It said at one school the city claimed rent on a basis of 2,184 room-days of use, but that the rooms were reserved for antipoverty programs only 319 of those days—and may have been used even less than that.

The report said rent was charged to the antipoverty program even for some days on which other organizations used the rooms.

The GAO said it rechecked the rental situation after bringing the matter to OEO's attention and found it still was unsatisfactory. It recommended that "all past and present claims of the Board of Education be revalued."

Murder Trial Due to Start After Delay

WALNUT RIDGE, Ark. (AP) — The first-degree murder trial of Mrs. Myrtle Clark, which has been delayed three times, is due to get under way this morning in Lawrence Circuit Court.

Mrs. Clark, 47, of Walnut Ridge, is charged with the shooting death of her husband, Millard M. Clark, March 18, 1967. Mrs. Clark was charged in the slaying last April 25.

Telephone Strike Is Inevitable

WASHINGTON (AP) — Only

a miracle can avert a nationwide strike of some 200,000 telephone workers next Thursday, says President Joseph A. Beirne of the AFL-CIO Communications Workers.

After a seven-hour meeting with the union's executive board Monday, Beirne said:

"The board is in full agreement that the strike appears inevitable at this point and that our position must be to press hard and unceasingly for the substantial general (wage) increase that our members both need and deserve."

Some 8,000 members of another union, the AFL-CIO International Brotherhood of Electrical Workers, are already on strike against the New Jersey Bell Telephone Co. and 14,000 members of Beirne's union are respecting the picket lines and refusing to work.

The New Jersey telephone company said supervisory personnel stayed on the job and there was no interruption of service to its 292 million customers when the strike began Monday.

Beirne conceded that a strike by his members would also have little immediate impact on most customers, except for long distance calls and other service requiring an operator, because of the highly automated nature of the nation's telephone system.

A 3 p.m. Thursday deadline for the strike would involve 23,000 telephone installers, whom the union is using to try to set a new wage pattern. They are the highest paid, averaging $3.27 an hour compared with an average of $2.79 for all telephone workers.

A strike by the installers would halt work on putting in new telephone equipment around the nation. They are employees of the Western Electric Co., the manufacturing subsidiary of Bell.

Also involved would be Bell System workers in Ohio, Illinois, North Dakota, South Dakota, Minnesota, Nebraska, Wisconsin, New Jersey, Michigan, Idaho, Indiana, Northern California, Nevada, Washington State and Washington, D.C.

Other Bell System contracts around the nation expire later in April and May, and the strike eventually could embrace all states except Hawaii and Alaska.

Man Admits Selling Bogus Bills

LITTLE ROCK (AP) — Elmer Joe Rouse, 25, of Hornersville, Mo., testified Monday in federal District Court that he had sold counterfeit bills to two Paragould men.

Rouse, who is serving a five-year term in prison for possessing and passing counterfeit bills, identified the men as Paul Eugene Hunt, 47, and Cecil L. Ragsdell, 39.

Hunt and Ragsdell went on trial Monday on a charge of conspiring to possess and pass counterfeit $10 and $20 bills in late 1966 and early 1967.

Rouse said he sold Hunt $2,000 in counterfeit bills for $600 and later sold Ragsdell $10,000 in counterfeit bills for $3,000.

Auto Insurance Ruling Friday

LITTLE ROCK (AP) — State Insurance Commissioner Allan W. Horne said Monday that he would announce by Friday his decision on whether to grant an average 17.3 per cent automobile insurance rate increase requested for Arkansas insurance companies.

Johnson Presses for Peace Talks, Saying Precious Time Lost

By FRANK CORMIER

Associated Press Writer
HONOLULU (AP) — President Johnson, pressing Hanoi for an early and serious response to Vietnam peace efforts, is also bearing down on military problems in conferences at the U.S. Pacific command post.

Johnson's schedule today centered on a visit to the hilltop headquarters of Adm. U.S. Grant Sharp, the Pacific commander in chief who will retire in July. The President said he wanted to talk about the military situation in Vietnam with Sharp and his designated successor, Adm. John S. McCain.

The President gave North Vietnam a new peace prod Monday, soon after arriving in Honolulu.

As friends and critics vied for attention with shouts, chants and placards—the friends clearly were more numerous—Johnson reviewed peace efforts in an address from the steps of Iolani Palace, seat of the Hawaiian government. These efforts focus at this stage on finding a mutually acceptable preliminary meeting site.

$350 Billion Riot Bill Is About Ready

By G. C. THELEN JR.

Associated Press Writer
WASHINGTON (AP) — Legislation will be introduced in the Senate this week aimed at a start on enactment of White House riot commission's recommendations that would cost an estimated $350 billion over a decade.

Sen. Edward W. Brooke, R-Mass., a commission member, plans to introduce bills Wednesday to make a limited, low-cost start on the recommendations, including a congressional study of a plan for a guaranteed annual income.

He also will propose federal incentives to eliminate racial imbalance in schools and the denial of federal aid to school districts that decline to abolish such imbalance.

Other Brooke proposals will include: —A change in distribution of federal education funds to redirect $1.2 billion exclusively toward low-income school districts.

—A congressional study of the welfare system to "hopefully prepare the Congress for a thorough and imaginative reconstruction of our presently inadequate public assistance programs."

—Extension of antidiscrimination provisions in employ-

All Around Town

By The Star Staff

The new Postmaster General Marvin Watson is highly regarded here and is credited with being a key factor in the building of Millwood Reservoir and setting up the Southwest Arkansas Water District.

Vincent Foster recalls that Mr. Watson discussed what had been done in securing the Ferrell's Bridge Dam and the water district in Texas before the local Kiwanis Club and his talk so impressed Kiwanians that several members persuaded him to stay overnight and meet with the Hope Mayor and City Council.

Mr. Watson did and told his experiences in the Texas project. It was this information along with his suggestions that really got the project in motion and after hearing him the Hope Council unofficially started formation of the SW Water District.

"This information and suggestions were a key factor in the project that is now a reality," Mr. Foster said.

Four Planes Are Lost in the Air War

By GEORGE ESPER

Associated Press Writer
SAIGON (AP) — The air war against North Vietnam cost the United States four more planes Monday, two shot down over the southern panhandle and two lost when they collided in the air, military sources said today. Five of the fliers were rescued and one was lost.

A U.S. spokesman suggested the North Vietnamese may be moving more antiaircraft guns south to counter the increase in American bombing of the panhandle since President Johnson banned raids farther north.

The two planes shot down were Air Force F105s and both were hit near Dong Hoi, about 40 miles north of the demilitarized zone. The U.S. spokesman said antiaircraft fire around Dong Hoi was extremely heavy and possibly the enemy had been installing new weapons positions in the panhandle area.

Since President Johnson halted U.S. bombing north of the 20th Parallel on April 1 in an attempt to open peace discussions with Hanoi, U.S. pilots have more than doubled their usual number of daily raids on the panhandle.

One of the F105 pilots, Col. David W. Winn, 44, of Minneapolis, Minn., maneuvered his crippled Thunderchief 100 miles south over the South China Sea, bailed out at 18,000 feet, and was picked up by a "jolly green giant" helicopter.

The pilot of the second F105 is listed as missing in action.

Military sources said two Navy F4 Phantoms from carriers in the Tonkin Gulf collided southeast of Vinh, a North Vietnamese city about 145 miles north of the demilitarized zone, but all four crewmen parachuted into the gulf out of reach of enemy ground troops. Navy helicopters quickly rescued them.

The four planes raised the total number lost in the air war against North Vietnam to 825.

Adults Get Educational Certificates

Certificates for adults who passed the Tests of General Educational Development (GED) arrived today. Twenty-one out of the 28 adults who took the tests passed and their certificates are available at the Yerger High School office. All adults who took the tests should go by the office at Yerger and pick up their test scores.

Persons passing the tests were:

Evelyn Arnold, Penny Hicks, Dalton Fulmer, Patsy Beard, Ruth Lockard, James Ponder, Severn Jackson, Mona W. Ellis, Boyce Parsons, Gloria Parsons, Wanda Muldrew, Carolyn Taylor, Mary Webb, Louise Hicks, Effie Thompson, Carolyn Petty, Eva Inscore, Ramona Johnson, Coy A. Welch, Michael Williams, and Betty J. Ford.

These adults put in 120 hours taking education classes and as a result were able to pass these tests that were given in five areas:

Test 1: Correctness and Effectiveness of Expression.

Test 2: Interpretation of Reading Materials in the Social Sciences.

Test 3: Interpretation of Reading Materials in the Natural Sciences.

Test 4: Interpretation of Literary Materials.

Test 5: General Mathematical Ability.

These certificates will be recognized by practically all types of industry as an equivalent of a high school diploma. It would be well if more adults would avail themselves of the opportunity to attend adult education classes whenever they are available, said Will V. Rutherford.

Police Battle Leftists in Germany

By HANS METZING
Associated Press Writer
FRANKFURT, Germany (AP) — Police battled leftist demonstrators in the streets around the Axel Springer publishing plants in Frankfurt and Munich Monday night as thousands of students tried to prevent distribution of today's newspapers.

More than 150 demonstrators were arrested as student rioting spread to West Germany. Thirty demonstrators were reported seriously injured.

West Berlin was free of student violence Monday for the first time since the attempted assassination there last Thursday of Rudi Dutschke, 28-year-old leader of the Socialist Student Federation, or SDS. But more than 2,000 West Berlin students held a nonviolent demonstration under the watchful eyes of police with water cannon.

Dutschke, hospitalized with three bullet wounds, was reported out of immediate danger. A house painter accused of shooting him, 23-year-old Josef Bachmann, was wounded by the police who captured him and was reported in good condition at the same hospital.

Springer, the biggest newspaper and magazine publisher in continental Europe, has long been a target of leftist students because of his conservative editorial policy. The SDS claims attacks in the Springer papers on Germany's dissatisfied leftist students were an indirect incitement to the attack on Dutschke.

A casualty of Monday's fight at the Springer plant in Munich was Associated Press photographer Klaus Frings. He was in serious condition after being struck on the head by a stone during the fighting.

Four other persons were seriously injured and more than 100 arrested in Munich. Police said they found an incendiary device in a courtyard of the printing plant.

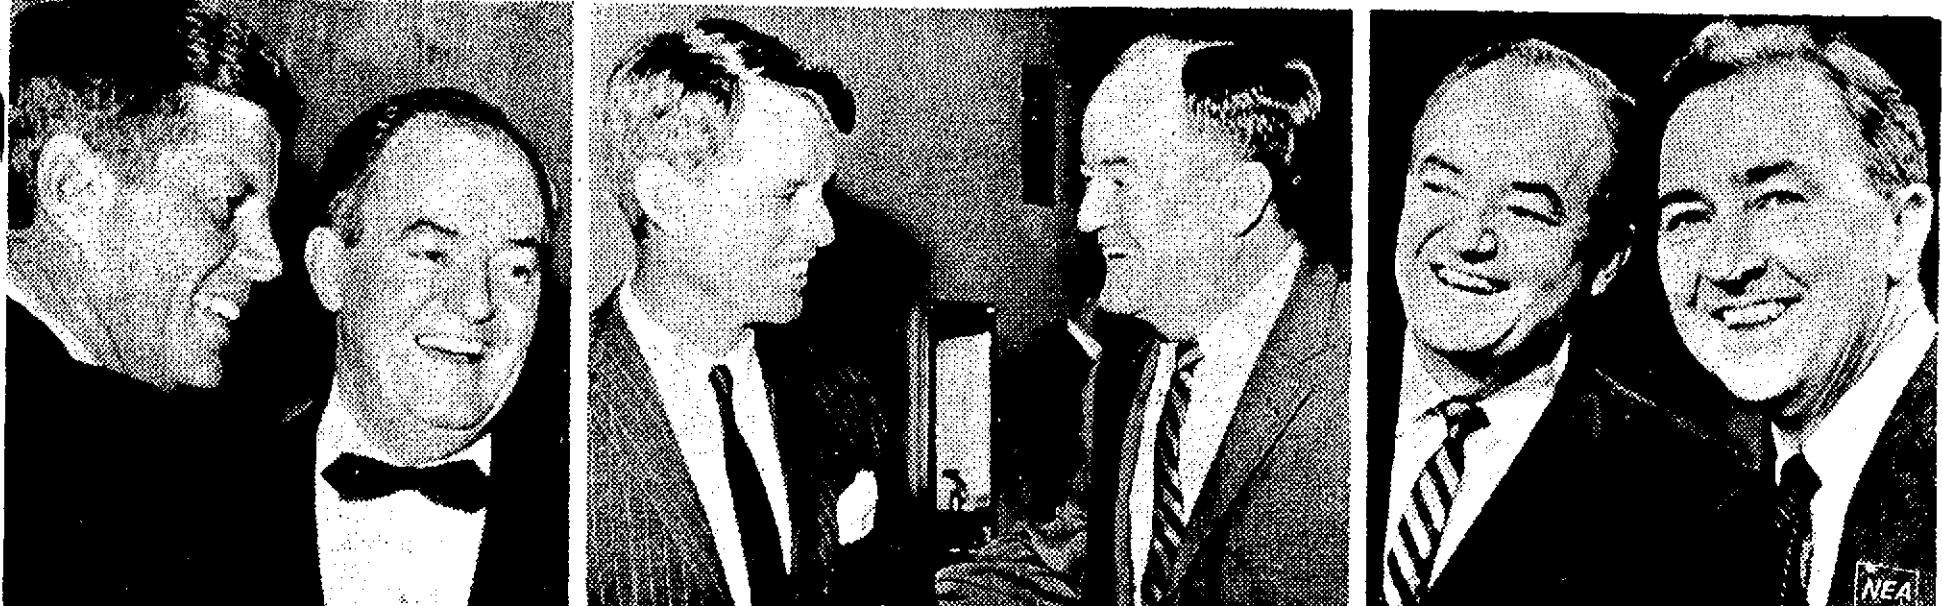

The battle in Frankfurt was joined after police moved from behind barbed wire barricades and tried to convoy about a dozen delivery trucks through a crowd of 5,000 blockading the printing plant.

Either the outgoing vice president or the president pro tempore of the Senate administers the oath of office to the vice president-elect.

LEAP YEARS saw Humphrey mayor of Minneapolis and Senator-elect from Minnesota in 1948, left; in 1952, second from left, he tried for Democratic presidential nomination but lost out to Adlai Stevenson; a try for vice-presidential nomination in 1956, second from right, also failed when Estes Kefauver got the nod; trying again for the top post in 1960, right, he was defeated by JFK.

With President Johnson's announcement that he would neither seek nor accept the Democratic nomination for re-election, the nation's eyes focused sharply on Vice President Humphrey. Thus far, LBJ has withheld support from any alternate candidate. Some have opined that his endorsement of the vice president, a firm proponent of administration policies, would mark his own withdrawal as fear of defeat in a showdown with Bobby Kennedy rather than a desire to cement division within the party. These photos highlight Humphrey, now in his 20th and perhaps most propitious year on the national political scene.

HISTORY could repeat itself if Humphrey faces a Kennedy in a primary fight. At left he is seen with the late President Kennedy during the 1960 campaign; in center he chats with RFK in 1964, when Kennedy was attorney general; and at right Humphrey poses with Sen. Eugene McCarthy in 1964 when both sought the vice-presidential nomination. At that time McCarthy withdrew in favor of HHHH; this year he is making a strong bid for the presidential spot on the Democratic ticket.

LBJ Faces Realities in Politics

By CARL P. LEUBSDORF
Associated Press Writer
WASHINGTON (AP) — President Johnson's decision to delay indefinitely his address to Congress on a program dealing with the racial crisis is largely a reaction to political realities.

Senate Democratic Leader Mike Mansfield has made clear that Johnson would have trouble winning approval of massive new spending programs when budget cutbacks are being pushed in line with efforts to raise taxes.

But some Congress members, including Republican Sens. Jacob K. Javits of New York and Charles H. Percy of Illinois, as well as GOP Rep. Melvin R. Laird of Wisconsin, have criticized the "business as usual" attitude that sees Congress taking its regular Easter recess.

Actually, the House is taking much more of a holiday than the Senate, which returns to work Wednesday with major measures on the agenda such as the school breakfast program, military procurement and the antitrust bill.

While House leaders insist they can only schedule business as fast as committees approve bills, the fact is that three- and four-day-a-week sessions cut down the time committees can have enough members present to meet.

In this atmosphere, the major effect of a Johnson speech to Congress would probably have been a psychological one, to get action on parts of his program pending in committees.

But there are signs that Congress is becoming more receptive to the need for programs aimed at helping the poor in urban slums and rural areas.

One is the House vote on the open-housing bill, particularly the surprisingly large amount of support from younger Republican congressmen who represent predominantly white suburban districts.

It is this group which has frequently in the past year determined the outcome of fights over urban measures, helping for example to put over funds for the model-cities program while sharply cutting back on rent supplements.

In the Senate, meanwhile, a bipartisan coalition handed the "establishment" a rare setback in rejecting a compromise money bill that cut funds for the impacted areas school aid program, summer jobs and the preschool Head Start program.

While some ruraly oriented members joined in providing the 54-24 majority because of opposition to the impacted areas cuts the vote is significant as the first one since the assassination of Dr. Martin Luther King Jr. and the resulting riots.

Even if the House wins the fight and the extra money is eventually eliminated, it will have been put on notice that the Senate is not going to follow demands for economy to the point of neglecting critical areas.

This week, a similar fight is expected when the Senate votes whether to approve its Agriculture Committee's proposed elimination of a proposed three-year, $96 million extension of the school lunch program to day care and recreation centers throughout the summer months.

The House approved the new program with no effort to cut or eliminate it, and initial debate indicates it has strong Senate support.
